

THE WORST COLD SPELL FOR MANY A LONG YEAR

Temperature Lower Than Ever in the City and Suburban Districts This Morning.

SOME CASES OF DESTITUTION AND SUFFERING

Unrelenting in its severity, the cold weather hangs tenaciously on and contrary to the conditions of the first two days of its reign it is attended by much misery and a disastrous decline in business generally. It was ardently hoped that a rise in the temperature would be general yesterday afternoon, but instead the mercury commenced to gradually recede and before last midnight the people of the city and community were suffering the coldest weather since the winter of 1898. And by daylight this morning the cold was almost unendurable, thermometers over the city registering from 10 to 20 degrees below zero.

From reports received from points all along the valley between Pittsburg and Cincinnati it is known that the and Cincinnati it is known that the average temperature along the river towns at 15 degrees below zero at an early hour this morning. The adjacent country districts are also in the grasp of the zero man and business everywhere is greatly impaired. In East Liverpool today no one ventured out who was not compelled to do so. The firesides were hugged throughout the entire day. Strange but gratifying there has not been so far any shortage in gas and the greatest suffering has been among those who have been unable to be supplied with other fuel. However, there have been a number of pipes burst and in a number of instances gas has been short on this account.

The plumbers have been busy thawing out water pipes, but only one serious case has been reported. It comes from the postoffice, where a pipe burst some time after midnight last night and before discovered had flooded the entire building. The loss will be heavy to mail matters and the flooring of the office. It was attended to by Postmaster Surles and a plumber at about 2 o'clock, they having been notified of the condition by two men who happened to notice the water seeping through to the street.

Township trustees were busy yesterday afternoon and today entertaining appeals of sufferers, but the worst case of all was that of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of the West End, who were nearly frozen and starved to death when they appeared at the city hall yesterday afternoon. They were both sick and it was immediately decided to send them to the county infirmary, where they were taken this morning in a sleigh.

The street cars of the East Liverpool and Wellsville line had great difficulty in keeping on the move all day and the inside of the cars was almost unbearable. They were extremely cold and passengers suffered a good deal. It was the intention of the management to have the Calcutta line in operation yesterday, but it was impossible to free the tracks of snow and no cars are running on that or the Pleasant Heights line.

Though the river at this point was closed a few days ago when the weather was not nearly so cold it is running today, and last night it raised several inches with a gradual rise all day. This is accounted for by the opening of the locks this side of Pittsburg.

Game of all descriptions with the woods as a home are suffering terribly and it is said that the quail family has been completely exterminated. Cows, horses, sheep, swine and other domestic animals in the surrounding country are also suffering much.

About the only really agreeable feature to the extreme weather is the beautiful picture of the snow-covered trees and frost-covered windows. It would be impossible for an artist to portray a more picturesque scene and the admirers of scenic beauty are surely contented.

The weather man predicts moderating temperature for tomorrow. If he misses it as much in this instance as he did yesterday it would be well to prepare for the bursting of all thermometers.

At Salineville 28 below was registered this morning before daylight, the coldest since 1892.

Nick Maessing, of Chester, whose thermometer usually distances all others, reports 28 below zero at his home this morning. A dairyman from north of town reported 24 degrees at his place. Other reports from the country show a phenomenally low temperature for this locality.

Memorial Day Orator.
Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—Rev. C. H. Brandt, pastor of the First Reformed church, of Lisbon, has been secured by the local Grand Army post to deliver the memorial address on Decoration day.

City Solicitor Davidson today prepared notices which he will send to the several departments of the city demanding that they make requisition on council for the amount of money necessary to run them during the next six months. This work on the part of the solicitor was not compulsory, but profiting from past experience, he thought it better to instruct the boards and other officials to be careful in their estimates of the running expenses, so that no mistakes will be made this time. It will be remembered that the boards roughly estimated the amounts thought to be necessary for running their departments and in at least one instance they came to grief.

The estimates must conform with the tax levy and after each department has made its requisition the finance committee of council will take a whack at the lists and reduce them so they will come within the tax limit. ## PLEADED GUILTY TO THEFT CHARGE

Mrs. Barnes Confessed to Stealing a Fur Boa Valued at $35.

SENTENCE NOT IMPOSED

Charged with stealing a fur boa, Mrs. Anna Barnes, a widow of Oakland, was taken before the mayor yesterday afternoon. After considerable reflection the woman pleaded guilty to the charge and was released until today when the mayor intended imposing sentence. He was unable today to determine what would be the proper punishment and allowed her to go until tomorrow when he will decide her case.

Mrs. Barnes acknowledged that she went into the Miller dry goods store in Wellsville about two weeks ago and stole a boa, valued at $35, which belonged to Miss Anna Kinsvatter, who was working in the store. After stealing the boa she returned to her home at Oakland and presented it to her daughter. An attempt was made by Wellsville officers to locate the thief, but they were unsuccessful and Chief Wyman was the first to be given a clue. He was told yesterday where to go to get the fur and having a search warrant issued went to the Barnes home, together with Officer Fisher, and had no trouble in locating the boa. The woman at first denied that it was the one wanted, but soon acknowledged the truth and to the mayor she made a full confession.

The boa cost $40 a year ago and was given to Miss Kinsvatter as a Christmas gift. Considering the fact that it must necessarily have deteriorated in value as the result of a year's wear the value was placed at $35, thereby freeing the woman of a grand larceny charge, which is punishable by a penitentiary sentence.

BOY THIEVES BUSY IN THE HILL DISTRICT

Stole an Umbrella Stand on East Fifth Street and Sleds on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Boy thieves have been committing some bold robberies of late on the hill tops and a strenuous effort will be made to catch them. They have the nerve of men and so far have been successful in getting away with considerable plunder of value. Reports of their deeds were made at central station today, but the most of the thieving was done the latter part of last week.

It seems that the youngsters are banded together and that they work together. Two of their robberies that have been reported occurred at the home of M. H. Bough, East Fifth street, and W. H. Riley, Pennsylvania avenue. At the first house the boys stole an ornamental umbrella stand and other fixtures, and at the Riley home they stole two sleds that were hidden from view far back under the porch. Other homes in the vicinity of the latter were visited and other such articles were taken.

MORE CRADERS

Put to Work on the Youngstown & Southern Near Columbus Yesterday.

SMALL SHOPS ARE SIGNING

Boss Barbers' Association Holding Out Against the New Scale.

THE FIGHT IS SPIRITED

More of the proprietors of small barber shops have signed the scale, but there remain some of the largest and most important firms in the town to be heard from. The members of the boss barbers' association are holding out, but it is claimed by the members of the union that they are weakening.

The proprietors, as near as can be learned, have undertaken to meet and resist the demands of the union through the combination of proprietors. It has been a very short time since the strike was inaugurated, but the journeymen claim the time has been sufficiently long to demonstrate that the bosses are undoubtedly playing a losing game. One of the shop owners who signed the scale early said this morning:

"Our fight would have been formidable enough to win had we been sufficiently well organized. You see, there are not 50 per cent of the bosses in that organization, and all who are still standing out, but it will do them no good whatever. The two and three chair shops have signed up, and when you consider that a concern with more than that number of chairs are now being cared by the proprietor alone, it is easy to see who will win in the long run. Naturally the men who run four or five chairs have enough patronage to justify them in hiring that number of men. The employees of these shops are out now, and with no one on hand to hold the patronage it will naturally drift to the shops now running, the proprietors of

LEGISLATURE TO REST FOR A WHOLE WEEK

After Brief Preliminary Work Adjournment Is Taken Until Inauguration Day.

A BILL AMENDING THE MILITARY LAWS

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, January 5.—The general assembly adjourned this morning until next Monday, the day of the inauguration of Governor-elect Herrick.

Two bills were introduced yesterday, one in the senate, amending the military laws and another, in the house, increasing the salary of the lieutenant governor from $800 to $2,500. The former measure was speedily made a law. The salary bill was passed in a somewhat amended form. An attempt was made to rush it through under suspension of rules after it was introduced, but Mr. Crist, of Columbiana, interposed an objection on the ground that the members had not had sufficient time to consider and examine its provisions. He offered a resolution deferring action on it until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. This was adopted.

In the drawing for seats in the house Messrs. Crist and Hill secured seats near each other and close to the speaker. In the senate the second term members were allowed their old seats. Senator Connell's seat is on the extreme left side of the chamber in the center of the outer circle of seats.

When the senate was called to order yesterday morning before the organization was completed Senator Connell acted as temporary clerk. Later he was made a member of the joint committee of house and senate appointed to notify the governor that the general assembly had convened.

The bill amending the military laws as introduced in the senate by Schallenbarger, of Cleveland, places the governor's staff on a military basis, and legalizes the action of Governor-elect Herrick in selecting a staff from commissioned officers of the National Guard. It provides for 12 members, three of whom are titled, the adjutant general, given title of brigadier general; the assistant adjutant general and assistant quartermaster general, who are given titles of colonel. The bill creates the latter position. The salary of the adjutant general is increased from $2,500 to $2,700 per year; that of assistant adjutant general from $1,500 to $1,700, and that of assistant quartermaster general is put at the latter figure. All members of the staff, other than these three officers, retain their rank as members of the National Guard. Heretofore all members of the governor's staff ranked as colonel. This measure is now a law.

The senate committee on mileage reported yesterday afternoon. Senator Connell is allowed $54.96. The members are allowed 12 cents per mile each way.

Gov. Nash formally notified the legislature of his action in removing George W. Collier as chief of the stationery engineers' department and of the appointment of W. E. Kennedy, of Cincinnati, as his successor. On motion of Senator Connell the governor's action was approved and the appointment confirmed. Similar action was taken by the house. Senator Smith, of Tuscarawas, formerly a resident of Salineville, found a bouquet of flowers on his desk Monday morning—a gift of the United Mine Workers.

which have signed the scale. The result of the strike is bound to be disastrous to the masses who are still fighting, and it will take them a long time to gather up their former patrons even if they signed the scale now."

Charles Caton has the credit of making the first break. He signed the scale as soon as the journeymen had it prepared, and his patronage from unionists in other lines of industry indicates that the barbers are getting all the sympathy they need.

TWO SALOON MEN
FINED $10 AND COSTS

Mayor Weaver Calls Up Proprietors Accused of Keeping Their Places Open on Sunday.

Carrying out his announced intention, mention of which was made exclusively in the News Review, Mayor Weaver yesterday afternoon called John Flesch, the saloonist of West Market street, before him and read the charge of keeping open after hours to him. Flesch pleaded guilty to the charge after considerable wrangling and was fined $10 and costs, which he paid. Olson & Watkins were called and Mr. Olson informed the mayor that he would plead guilty to a similar charge. The mayor fined him the same amount and he will settle before the end of the week.

The mayor states that he has charges against four men who were in the place of Flesch when it was raided and that they will be arraigned on a charge of loitering in a saloon after hours. It is the intention of the mayor to have all of the saloonists who have been raided of late to appear before him this week.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—W. C. Miller and Miss Sidney Watson, of Negley, have been granted a marriage license.

CASES OF DISTRESS AND HUNGER

Cold Weather Brings to Sight Suffering For Lack of Fuel and Food.

The township trustees are having more cases of destitution before them today than for a long time. Some of the cases are deplorable and the trustees are doing all they can to alleviate the sufferings. William Farmer, the well known local character, who is now living in the East End, was reported to the trustees this afternoon as being on the verge of starvation and nearly frozen to death. The trustees started out immediately to ascertain the truth of the matter.

Mrs. Moses Perpuity applied to the trustees this afternoon for aid. She said she and her husband moved to the city two weeks ago from about Steubenville. They are living in Grove alley. They have three children and for two days have not had a bite of anything to eat in the house and no coal. Her husband is working, but can draw no money and she asked that the trustees give them enough coal and food to run them until Saturday. Their wants were satisfied.

A Mrs. Green, of Garfield street, who lives with her three children, the husband and father having deserted them long ago, has been sick abed for weeks and the trustees were attracted to her and the children today. They found that she was in a bad condition and would have helped her, but she was too proud to allow it and said she would rather suffer.

Mrs. Sarah Haight and family and a colored man by the name of Rigby are being helped by the county infirmary directors. These people applied to the trustees for help, but the latter were late in furnishing them with the necessary provisions and infirmary Director Kelly came to their assistance. He has ordered a local grocer to give them $2 worth of groceries per week until further notice.

A member of the Salvation Army asked the trustees to help Mrs. Emma Wilson, of Shantytown, who is at death's door. The trustees will do as requested.

THE WORST COLD SPELL FOR MANY A LONG YEAR

Temperature Lower Than Ever in the City and Suburban Districts This Morning.

SOME CASES OF DESTITUTION AND SUFFERING

Unrelenting in its severity, the cold weather hangs tenaciously on and contrary to the conditions of the first two days of its reign it is attended by much misery and a disastrous decline in business generally. It was ardently hoped that a rise in the temperature would be general yesterday afternoon, but instead the mercury commenced to gradually recede and before last midnight the people of the city and community were suffering the coldest weather since the winter of 1898. And by daylight this morning the cold was almost unendurable, thermometers over the city registering from 10 to 20 degrees below zero.

From reports received from points all along the valley between Pittsburg and Cincinnati it is known that the and Cincinnati it is known that the average temperature along the river towns at 15 degrees below zero at an early hour this morning. The adjacent country districts are also in the grasp of the zero man and business everywhere is greatly impaired. In East Liverpool today no one ventured out who was not compelled to do so. The firesides were hugged throughout the entire day. Strange but gratifying there has not been so far any shortage in gas and the greatest suffering has been among those who have been unable to be supplied with other fuel. However, there have been a number of pipes burst and in a number of instances gas has been short on this account.

The plumbers have been busy thawing out water pipes, but only one serious case has been reported. It comes from the postoffice, where a pipe burst some time after midnight last night and before discovered had flooded the entire building. The loss will be heavy to mail matters and the flooring of the office. It was attended to by Postmaster Surles and a plumber at about 2 o'clock, they having been notified of the condition by two men who happened to notice the water seeping through to the street.

Township trustees were busy yesterday afternoon and today entertaining appeals of sufferers, but the worst case of all was that of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of the West End, who were nearly frozen and starved to death when they appeared at the city hall yesterday afternoon. They were both sick and it was immediately decided to send them to the county infirmary, where they were taken this morning in a sleigh.

The street cars of the East Liverpool and Wellsville line had great difficulty in keeping on the move all day and the inside of the cars was almost unbearable. They were extremely cold and passengers suffered a good deal. It was the intention of the management to have the Calcutta line in operation yesterday, but it was impossible to free the tracks of snow and no cars are running on that or the Pleasant Heights line.

Though the river at this point was closed a few days ago when the weather was not nearly so cold it is running today, and last night it raised several inches with a gradual rise all day. This is accounted for by the opening of the locks this side of Pittsburg.

Game of all descriptions with the woods as a home are suffering terribly and it is said that the quail family has been completely exterminated. Cows, horses, sheep, swine and other domestic animals in the surrounding country are also suffering much.

About the only really agreeable feature to the extreme weather is the beautiful picture of the snow-covered trees and frost-covered windows. It would be impossible for an artist to portray a more picturesque scene and the admirers of scenic beauty are surely contented.

The weather man predicts moderating temperature for tomorrow. If he misses it as much in this instance as he did yesterday it would be well to prepare for the bursting of all thermometers.

At Salineville 28 below was registered this morning before daylight, the coldest since 1892.

Nick Muessig, of Chester, whose thermometer usually distances all others, reports 28 below zero at his home this morning. A dairyman from north of town reported 24 degrees at his place. Other reports from the country show a phenomenally low temperature for this locality.

Memorial Day Orator.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—Rev. C. H. Brandt, pastor of the First Reformed church, of Lisbon, has been secured by the local Grand Army post to deliver the memorial address on Decoration day.

THE SERVICE BOARD'S ESTIMATE

Wants to Improve the Lower Pumping Station, Other Departments Given Orders.

City Solicitor Davidson today prepared notices which he will send to the several departments of the city demanding that they make requisition on council for the amount of money necessary to run them during the next six months. This work on the part of the solicitor was not compulsory, but profiting from past experience, he thought it better to instruct the boards and other officials to be careful in their estimates of the running expenses, so that no mistakes will be made this time. It will be remembered that the boards roughly estimated the amounts thought to be necessary for running their departments and in at least one instance they came to grief.

The estimates must conform with the tax levy and after each department has made its requisition the finance committee of council will take a whack at the lists and reduce them so they will come within the tax limit. Those to receive orders by the solicitor are the mayor, the board of public safety, board of public service, board of health, the park commission, the library trustees, auditor and treasurer.

The board of public service received word this morning that it would be compelled to make a requisition and before noon Clerk Gipner had the following made out which will be submitted to the finance committee of council: Employees of the water works department, $5,600; fuel, $4,000; improvements and supplies, $3,400; interest on water works bonds, $2,500; improvements at the lower pumping station, $7,000; bills due, $1,200, making a total of $24,700. For the street department the board wants $5,500; for the light, $6,000; wharf, $125; sewer repairs, $400. Mr. Gipner reports that the cash on hand in the water works department amounts to $11,000, and that the April assessments will reach $20,000. This will leave $6,300 to run the department from July 1 to October.

It is the wish of the board of service to have the $7,000 appropriated for the improvement of the lower pumping station above everything else on the improvement line. If the council sees fit to give the board that amount the station will be raised six feet, placing it above the high water mark and new boilers will be placed in the building. Both improvements are very necessary.

PLEADED GUILTY TO THEFT CHARGE

Mrs. Barnes Confessed to Stealing a Fur Boa Valued at $35.

SENTENCE NOT IMPOSED

Charged with stealing a fur boa, Mrs. Anna Barnes, a widow of Oakland, was taken before the mayor yesterday afternoon. After considerable reflection the woman pleaded guilty to the charge and was released until today when the mayor intended imposing sentence. He was unable today to determine what would be the proper punishment and allowed her to go until tomorrow when he will decide her case.

Mrs. Barnes acknowledged that she went into the Miller dry goods store in Wellsville about two weeks ago and stole a boa, valued at $35, which belonged to Miss Anna Kinsvatter, who was working in the store. After stealing the boa she returned to her home at Oakland and presented it to her daughter. An attempt was made by Wellsville officers to locate the thief, but they were unsuccessful and Chief Wyman was the first to be given a clue. He was told yesterday where to go to get the fur and having a search warrant issued went to the Barnes home, together with Officer Fisher, and had no trouble in locating the boa. The woman at first denied that it was the one wanted, but soon acknowledged the truth and to the mayor she made a full confession.

The boa cost $40 a year ago and was given to Miss Kinsvatter as a Christmas gift. Considering the fact that it must necessarily have deteriorated in value as the result of a year's wear the value was placed at $35, thereby freeing the woman of a grand larceny charge, which is punishable by a penitentiary sentence.

BOY THIEVES BUSY IN THE HILL DISTRICT

Stole an Umbrella Stand on East Fifth Street and Sleds on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Boy thieves have been committing some bold robberies of late on the hill tops and a strenuous effort will be made to catch them. They have the nerve of men and so far have been successful in getting away with considerable plunder of value. Reports of their deeds were made at central station today, but the most of the thieving was done the latter part of last week.

It seems that the youngsters are banded together and that they work together. Two of their robberies that have been reported occurred at the home of M. H. Bough, East Fifth street, and W. H. Riley, Pennsylvania avenue. At the first house the boys stole an ornamental umbrella stand and other fixtures, and at the Riley home they stole two sleds that were hidden from view far back under the porch. Other homes in the vicinity of the latter were visited and other such articles were taken.

MORE CRADERS

Put to Work on the Youngstown & Southern Near Columbiana Yesterday.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—An additional grading force commenced work near Columbiana yesterday on the route of the Youngstown & Southern railroad. The force is in charge of H. C. Van Pelt, who recently moved to Columbiana from Pennsylvania.

Basket Ball Trophy.

Prof. E. J. State, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., has offered a handsome cup to be contested for by the Y. M. C. A. basketball teams. There are four teams in the Y. M. C. A. and they have been formed into a league. The season will close May 1 and the trophy will then be awarded.

SMALL SHOPS ARE SIGNING

Boss Barbers' Association Holding Out Against the New Scale.

THE FIGHT IS SPIRITED

More of the proprietors of small barber shops have signed the scale, but there remain some of the largest and most important firms in the town to be heard from. The members of the boss barbers' association are holding out, but it is claimed by the members of the union that they are weakening.

The proprietors, as near as can be learned, have undertaken to meet and resist the demands of the union through the combination of proprietors. It has been a very short time since the strike was inaugurated, but the journeymen claim the time has been sufficiently long to demonstrate that the bosses are undoubtedly playing a losing game. One of the shop owners who signed the scale early said this morning:

"Our fight would have been formidable enough to win had we been sufficiently well organized. You see, there are not 50 per cent of the bosses in that organization, and all who are still standing out, but it will do them no good whatever. The two and three chair shops have signed up, and when you consider that a concern with more than that number of chairs are now being cared by the proprietor alone, it is easy to see who will win in the long run. Naturally the men who run four or five chairs have enough patronage to justify them in hiring that number of men. The employees of these shops are out now, and with no one on hand to hold the patronage it will naturally drift to the shops now running, the proprietors of

After Brief Preliminary Work Adjournment Is Taken Until Inauguration Day.

A BILL AMENDING THE MILITARY LAWS

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, January 5.—The general assembly adjourned this morning until next Monday, the day of the inauguration of Governor-elect Herrick.

Two bills were introduced yesterday, one in the senate, amending the military laws and another, in the house, increasing the salary of the lieutenant governor from $800 to $2,500. The former measure was speedily made a law. The salary bill was passed in a somewhat amended form. An attempt was made to rush it through under suspension of rules after it was introduced, but Mr. Crist, of Columbiana, interposed an objection on the ground that the members had not had sufficient time to consider and examine its provisions. He offered a resolution deferring action on it until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. This was adopted.

In the drawing for seats in the house Messrs. Crist and Hill secured seats near each other and close to the speaker. In the senate the second term members were allowed their old seats. Senator Connell's seat is on the extreme left side of the chamber in the center of the outer circle of seats.

When the senate was called to order yesterday morning before the organization was completed Senator Connell acted as temporary clerk. Later he was made a member of the joint committee of house and senate appointed to notify the governor that the general assembly had convened.

The bill amending the military laws as introduced in the senate by Schallenger, of Cleveland, places the governor's staff on a military basis, and legalizes the action of Governor-elect Herrick in selecting a staff from commissioned officers of the National Guard. It provides for 12 members, three of whom are titled, the adjutant general, given title of brigadier general; the assistant adjutant general and assistant quartermaster general, who are given titles of colonel. The bill creates the latter position. The salary of the adjutant general is increased from $2,500 to $2,700 per year; that of assistant adjutant general from $1,500 to $1,700, and that of assistant quartermaster general is put at the latter figure. All members of the staff, other than these three officers, retain their rank as members of the National Guard. Heretofore all members of the governor's staff ranked as colonel. This measure is now a law.

The senate committee on mileage reported yesterday afternoon. Senator Connell is allowed $54.96. The members are allowed 12 cents per mile each way.

Gov. Nash formally notified the legislature of his action in removing George W. Collier as chief of the stationery engineers' department and of the appointment of W. E. Kennedy, of Cincinnati, as his successor. On motion of Senator Connell the governor's action was approved and the appointment confirmed. Similar action was taken by the house. Senator Smith, of Tuscarawas, formerly a resident of Salineville, found a bouquet of flowers on his desk Monday morning—a gift of the United Mine Workers.

which have signed the scale. The result of the strike is bound to be disastrous to the bosses who are still fighting, and it will take them a long time to gather up their former patrons even if they signed the scale now."

Charles Caton has the credit of making the first break. He signed the scale as soon as the journeymen had it prepared, and his patronage from unionists in other lines of industry indicates that the barbers are getting all the sympathy they need.

Two SALOON MEN
FINED $10 AND COSTS
Mayor Weaver Calls Up Proprietors Accused of Keeping Their Places Open on Sunday.

Carrying out his announced intention, mention of which was made exclusively in the News Review, Mayor Weaver yesterday afternoon called John Fleisch, the saloonist of West Market street, before him and read the charge of keeping open after hours to him. Fleisch pleaded guilty to the charge after considerable wrangling and was fined $10 and costs, which he paid. Olson & Watkins were called and Mr. Olson informed the mayor that he would plead guilty to a similar charge. The mayor fined him the same amount and he will settle before the end of the week.

The mayor states that he has charges against four men who were in the place of Fleisch when it was raided and that they will be arraigned on a charge of loitering in a saloon after hours. It is the intention of the mayor to have all of the saloonists who have been raided of late to appear before him this week.

Licensed to Marry.
Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—W. C. Miller and Miss Sidney Watson, of Negley, have been granted a marriage license.

CASES OF DISTRESS AND HUNGER

Cold Weather Brings to Sight Suffering For Lack of Fuel and Food.

The township trustees are having more cases of destitution before them today than for a long time. Some of the cases are deplorable and the trustees are doing all they can to alleviate the sufferings. William Farmer, the well known local character, who is now living in the East End, was reported to the trustees this afternoon as being on the verge of starvation and nearly frozen to death. The trustees started out immediately to ascertain the truth of the matter.

Mrs. Moses Perpuly applied to the trustees this afternoon for aid. She said she and her husband moved to the city two weeks ago from about Steubenville. They are living in Grove alley. They have three children and for two days have not had a bite of anything to eat in the house and no coal. Her husband is working, but can draw no money and she asked that the trustees give them enough coal and food to run them until Saturday. Their wants were satisfied.

A Mrs. Green, of Garfield street, who lives with her three children, the husband and father having deserted them long ago, has been sick abed for weeks and the trustees were attracted to her and the children today. They found that she was in a bad condition and would have helped her, but she was too proud to allow it and said she would rather suffer.

Mrs. Sarah Haight and family and a colored man by the name of Rigby are being helped by the county infirmary directors. These people applied to the trustees for help, but the latter were late in furnishing them with the necessary provisions and infirmary Director Kelly came to their assistance. He has ordered a local grocer to give them $2 worth of groceries per week until further notice.

A member of the Salvation Army asked the trustees to help Mrs. Emma Wilson, of Shantytown, who it at death's door. The trustees will do as requested.

Among the Potteries and Allied Industries

CHINESE DECORATIONS.

In decorating ware the Chinese style of painting differs from that of any other country on the globe. The harmony of the Chinese paintings offers greater variety than those to be found in any other country. In most of the specimens received from the Celestial empire the forms and flesh in figure painting are not modeled, but strokes of red or black are used to define the outlines, and the colors are laid in flat tints, on which a damask is drawn afterwards either in the same or different colors.

The colors would have no effect were they not applied in this manner, which alone gives the Mongolian paintings the relief impossible to obtain by any other means. Rare Chinese pottery is very valuable. Recently a pair of miniature wine cups, reputed to have had their origin in the fourteenth century, were purchased by an American art connoisseur for $1,500. A single vase made at a much later date brought over $1,000. The largest collection of antique Chinese pottery in this country, in the possession of any single individual, is that of Mr. Waggoner, of Washington, D. C. It is very complete, being valued at more than $10,000.

A FRENCH GRAFT.

Dispatches from Paris announce the fact that the parliamentary commission appointed to look into the grafting by ministers of state and other high officials whereby the Sevres porcelain factory, which is the property of the state, is annually robbed of a million francs or more, says the "prevaling conditions beat both Tammany and Russia."

The commission found that many of the ministers of state and other dignitaries, who are privileged to issue orders upon the state porcelain factory, do so to escape personal liability for debt. When they engage opera singers or sourestes to come to their house and do stunts for them and their friends they hand the ladies more of ten than not an order on the pottery.

A VALUABLE

Those who attended the Washington meeting of the United States Manufacturers' association from this city have received a copy of a photograph taken of the delegates and members of the association. In the picture are the representative general ware potters of

THE WEATHER

Ohio—Fair and warmer Tuesday; Wednesday snow or rain; fresh south-east winds.

Western Pennsylvania—Partly cloudy Tuesday with rising temperature; Wednesday snow or rain in west portion, fair in east; light variable winds, becoming fresh southeast.

the United States and is very highly prized.

STARTED TODAY.

The E. M. Knowles plant started practically in full today, the operations being notified yesterday to report for duty. This plant has been enjoying a fine run of business and has been putting out a high grade of ware. There is considerable assurance of steady operation for several months.

POTTERY NOTES.

The decorating department at Laughlin No. 3 started yesterday. The Wellsville China company has a new dinner set ready for the market.

The resumption of work was somewhat deterred yesterday owing to the extreme cold weather.

A few of the operatives at the Laughlin plant started yesterday and almost a full force is on today.

W. C. Browne, a well known pottery salesman, will shortly go on the road for the D. C. McNicol Pottery company, traveling in the northwest.

James Myler, one of the employees of the Cameron Pottery company, has been spending the Christmas holidays here with relatives, returning yesterday.

In the current issue of China, Glass and Lamps appears an excellent likeness of C. A. Saunders, the well known salesman for the William Brunt pottery.

Dell Thorman, of New Castle, has accepted the position as foreman of the clay shop of the Sebring Pottery company made vacant by Charles Dorf, who is now employed as jiggerman.

A GREAT QUESTION FOR METHODISTS

Abolition of the Rule Against Card Playing, Dancing and Theaters.

SOON TO BE DISPOSED OF

The Matter Will Come Up at the General Conference Next May—Prominent Clergymen Think the Rule is a Dead Letter.

The abolishment of the rule of discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church relating to card playing, dancing and theatre going will be one of the points of interesting discussion in the next general conference, to be held in Los Angeles next May.

Since the adoption of this rule in 1872 it has been more or less of a thorn in the flesh of the Methodist body and in recent years has been obsolete so far as the matter of enforcement was concerned. It has been merely held as a menace to offenders, and but rarely has a minister had the temerity to attempt its enforcement.

Four years ago an attempt was made to abolish the provision, but it began life in the conference and in the pressure of other business was set aside for further consideration. Those elements that backed the original effort, the conservatives of the church, are preparing to renew the effort in the coming convention.

It is argued by those opposing the rule that it puts restrictions upon the younger members under which they continually chafe, and renders almost certain deliberate violation, which often leads to greater liberties. Further, they argue that there are even more dangerous inducements than any of those prescribed that are not touched by any rule of discipline.

Those who favor the retention of the rule hold its observance as a mark of peculiar sanctity and urge that any detractor from the strict discipline in the past 32 years will be an instant signal for the cry on the part of the other denominational churches that the Methodists are letting down the bars. The effect of this is feared.

It is impossible to forecast the temper of the conference. At the coming session will be encountered conditions that are unusual, and which have not been possible in former conferences. For instance, the number of lay delegates to this conference will equal the number of ministerial delegates and of the lay delegates numbers will unquestionably be women.

In all, there will be between six and seven hundred delegates, of which it is estimated that at least 75 per cent will be delegates who were either not delegates to the last conference, or have not been delegates to any previous conference. How such a gathering will act it is wholly impossible to indicate.

Eastern ministers particularly have been vigorously discussing the subject in recent weeks. Last week at a meeting of the Methodist ministers of New York the expression was unanimous against the rule. New York ministers will doubtless precipitate the fight upon the further continuance of the provision, early in the conference, and they will have the support of all the conservative delegates.

Columbus ministers generally agree that the rule is without effect; that its adoption at the outset was unwise, and that at present it is a dead letter. No minister attempts to enforce it, they freely admit, and but for the fact that its abolishment might be misconstrued it would be a wise step to summarily wipe it out of existence.

Rev. N. W. Dick, presiding elder of the London district of the Ohio conference, in speaking of the proposed movement, said: "But for the misunderstanding and misinterpretation that is almost certain to follow such action, I believe that it would be entirely wise to set aside the provision."

"The rule is really a dead letter in the discipline and its effect is detrimental rather than helpful. The young people very largely ignore it, and in so doing are apt to acquire a carelessness with regard to other rules that it is essential they should observe."

"It was a mistake that it was ever adopted, and most unfortunate. Experience has shown that when you attempt to catalogue amusements as opposed and permissible you are getting into deep water. Many more baneful diversions than those specified in this rule are not covered by it."

"While it is not the spirit of those desiring the abolishment of the rule to favor dancing, card playing or theatre going, there is always a danger that should the conference take such action it would be wrongly construed. It is this fear alone that has so long preserved it."

An effort was made at the last general conference four years ago in Chicago, but it failed to carry. This was partially due to the lateness of the effort and partially to a vigorous opposition. The members feared the result of the criticism of other denominations.

"One of the most ludicrous incidents of the attempt was an amendment offered to the rule offered by F. W. Arter of Cleveland. This added to dancing, and card playing and theatre going a wide diversity of other popular amusements. It was offered in a spirit of burlesque."

"Football, baseball, horse racing, skating rink attendance, horse shows, popular concerts, sacred concerts on the Sabbath, and a score of other kindred amusements were all catalogued. It was naturally tabled, but it served to show the inconsistency of the rule under discussion."

"As the rule stands its effect is only advisory. It carries with it nothing that is really binding upon the conduct of church members. No minister would think in this day of bringing to trial the members of any family who practiced dancing within their home and the family membership, although it is in direct violation of the rule."

"The matter has not been given attention by the Ohio conference, nor has it been discussed in the local preachers' meetings, but I believe that the sentiment is largely for the abolishment of the rule if it can be done without arousing a cry that we are letting down the bars. Personally I believe that it would be far better for the church to return to the old rule, that whatever diversions that cannot be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus should be barred."

TRIED TO SAVE BROTHER.

Saw Smuggled to Emil Roeski to Help Him Escape.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Otto and Herman Roeski, brothers of Emil Roeski, under indictment for the car barn murders, have been arrested on suspicion that they planned to liberate their brother.

Otto Roeski confessed to smuggling saws to his brother Emil in jail. The saws used by Emil Roeski in attempting to escape were found in his cell concealed in a slight crevice in the steel slating in the ceiling, soap being smeared over the crevice.

The two brothers were held under $2,500 bonds to the criminal court on the sworn confession of Otto Roeski, who told how he and Herman waited outside of the jail with a rope to assist the imprisoned bandit in his descent from the roof.

1st Prize, $5,000. 2nd Prize, $2,500. 3rd Prize, $1,000.

7 Special Prizes of $500.00 Each for Early Estimates

Every subscriber to The Saturday Review (Weekly) will have an opportunity to share in these magnificent prizes if he wishes to participate in the Great World's Fair Contest in which these prizes are given. The subject matter of this great contest is the Total Paid Admissions during May, the first month of the Great St. Louis World's Fair. Without doubt, the World's Fair which will open at St. Louis on May 1st will be the largest fair ever held in the world, and ever man, woman and child should be interested in this great enterprise.

Conditions of This Great Contest.

Every subscriber who remits 50 cents, the regular subscription price for a 6 months' subscription to The Saturday Review, will receive four certificates which will secure for him any prize which his estimates entitle him to claim.

When you send in your subscription, also send your estimates of the total paid admissions at the World's Fair during May, the first month of the Fair. Write your name, address and estimate in the Subscription Blank below and mail it to the Contest Department, The East Liverpool Publishing Company.

The contest will close at midnight, April 30th, 1904, and no estimate received after that hour will be allowed. The official record of the Secretary of the World's Fair showing the total paid attendance during May, the first month of the Fair, will determine who are entitled to the prizes, and the awards will be made by a disinterested committee of prominent judges during the first week in June. As this contest will close on April 30th, the day before the Fair opens, all will have an equal chance to win these prizes. Those who estimate or guess NOW will have a chance to win a Special Prize and just as good a chance to win the Capital Prize of $5,000.00 as the one who guesses on the last day of the contest.

The money to pay the prizes is deposited in the Central Savings Bank, Detroit, Michigan, and can be used for no other purpose. In case of a tie, or that two or more estimators are equally correct, prizes will be divided equally between them.

CHINESE DECORATIONS.

In decorating ware the Chinese style of painting differs from that of any other country on the globe. The harmony of the Chinese paintings offers greater variety than those to be found in any other country. In most of the specimens received from the Celestial empire the forms and flesh in figure painting are not modeled, but strokes of red or black are used to define the outlines, and the colors are laid in flat tints, on which a damask is drawn afterwards either in the same or different colors.

The colors would have no effect were they not applied in this manner, which alone gives the Mongolian paintings the relief impossible to obtain by any other means. Rare Chinese pottery is very valuable. Recently a pair of miniature wine cups, reputed to have had their origin in the fourteenth century, were purchased by an American art connoisseur for $1,500. A single vase made at a much later date brought over $1,000. The largest collection of antique Chinese pottery in this country, in the possession of any single individual, is that of Mr. Waggaman, of Washington, D. C. It is very complete, being valued at more than $10,000.

A FRENCH GRAFT.

Dispatches from Paris announce the fact that the parliamentary commission appointed to look into the grafting by ministers of state and other high officials whereby the Sevres porcelain factory, which is the property of the state, is annually robbed of a million francs or more, says the "prevailing conditions beat both Tammany and Russia."

The commission found that many of the ministers of state and other dignitaries, who are privileged to issue orders upon the state porcelain factory, do so to escape personal liability for debt. When they engage opera singers or soubrettes to come to their house and do stunts for them and their friends they hand the ladies more of ten than not an order on the pottery.

A GREAT QUESTION FOR METHODISTS

Abolition of the Rule Against Card Playing, Dancing and Theaters.

SOON TO BE DISPOSED OF

The Matter Will Come Up at the General Conference Next May—Prominent Clergymen Think the Rule is a Dead Letter.

The abolishment of the rule of discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church relating to card playing, dancing and theatre going will be one of the points of interesting discussion in the next general conference, to be held in Los Angeles next May.

Since the adoption of this rule in 1872 it has been more or less of a thorn in the flesh of the Methodist body and in recent years has been obsolete so far as the matter of enforcement was concerned. It has been merely held as a menace to offenders, and but rarely has a minister had the temerity to attempt its enforcement.

Four years ago an attempt was made to abolish the provision, but it began life in the conference and in the pressure of other business was set aside for further consideration. Those elements that backed the original effort, the conservatives of the church, are preparing to renew the effort in the coming convention.

It is argued by those opposing the rule that it puts restrictions upon the younger members under which they continually chafe, and renders almost certain deliberate violation, which often leads to greater liberties. Further, they argue that there are even more dangerous indulgences than any of those prescribed that are not touched by any rule of discipline.

Those who favor the retention of the rule hold its observance as a mark of peculiar sanctity and urge that any detractor from the strict discipline in the past 32 years will be an instant signal for the cry on the part of the other denominational churches that the Methodists are letting down the bars. The effect of this is feared.

It is impossible to forecast the temper of the conference. At the coming session will be encountered conditions that are unusual, and which have not been possible in former conferences, or instance, the number of lay delegates to this conference will equal the number of ministerial delegates and of the lay delegates numbers will unquestionably be women.

In all, there will be between six and seven hundred delegates, of which it is estimated that at least 75 per cent will be delegates who were either not delegates to the last conference, or have not been delegates to any previous conference. How such a gathering will act it is wholly impossible to indicate.

Eastern ministers particularly have been vigorously discussing the subject in recent weeks. Last week at a meeting of the Methodist ministers of New York the expression was unanimous against the rule. New York ministers will doubtless precipitate the fight upon the further continuance of the provision, early in the conference, and they will have the support of all the conservative delegates.

Columbus ministers generally agree that the rule is without effect; that its adoption at the outset was unwise, and that at present it is a dead letter. No minister attempts to enforce it, they freely admit, and but for the fact that its abolishment might be misconstrued it would be a wise step to summarily wipe it out of existence.

Rev. N. W. Dick, presiding elder of the London district of the Ohio conference, in speaking of the proposed movement, said: "But for the misunderstanding and misinterpretation that is almost certain to follow such action, I believe that it would be entirely wise to set aside the provision."

"The rule is really a dead letter in the discipline and its effect is detrimental rather than helpful. The young people very largely ignore it, and in so doing are apt to acquire a carelessness with regard to other rules that it is essential they should observe."

"It was a mistake that it was ever adopted, and most unfortunate. Experience has shown that when you attempt to catalogue amusements as opposed and permissible you are getting into deep water. Many more baneful diversions than those specified in this rule are not covered by it."

"While it is not the spirit of those desiring the abolishment of the rule to favor dancing, card playing or theatre going, there is always a danger that should the conference take such action it would be wrongly construed. This is fear alone that has so long preserved it."

"An effort was made at the last general conference four years ago in Chicago, but it failed to carry. This was partially due to the lateness of the effort and partially to a vigorous opposition. The members feared the result of the criticism of other denominations.

"One of the most ludicrous incidents of the attempt was an amendment offered to the rule offered by F. W. Arter of Cleveland. This added to dancing, and card playing and theatre going a wide diversity of other popular amusements. It was offered in a spirit of burlesque."

"Football, baseball, horse racing, skating rink attendance, horse shows, popular concerts, sacred concerts on the Sabbath, and a score of other kindred amusements were all catalogued. It was naturally tabled, but it served to show the inconsistency of the rule under discussion."

"As the rule stands its effect is only advisory. It carries with it nothing that is really binding upon the conduct of church members. No minister would think in this day of bringing to trial the members of any family who practiced dancing within their home and the family membership, although it is in direct violation of the rule."

"The matter has not been given attention by the Ohio conference, nor has it been discussed in the local preachers' meetings, but I believe that the sentiment is largely for the abolishment of the rule if it can be done without arousing a cry that we are letting down the bars. Personally I believe that it would be far better for the church to return to the old rule, that whatever diversions that cannot be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus should be barred."

FEDERAL LOAN COMPANY
MADE A GREAT RECORD

Stands in the Front Rank of Fiduciary Institutions Although Less Than Two Years Old.

The stockholders of the Federal Building & Loan company held an important meeting last night at the offices of the institution, the business of the year just closed being reviewed and an election held for directors and officers. The three directors whose terms had expired, Messrs. Frank Allbaugh, Samuel R. Dixon and W. A. Andrews, were elected to succeed themselves. The directors later reorganized by electing Dr. R. J. Marshall president and Charles Boyce vice president, he succeeding Mr. Allbaugh. The secretary, W. C. Supplee, and the treasurer, T. H. Fisher, were elected last year for terms of three years. The company is less than two years old but it has made rapid strides and now holds an important place among local fiduciary institutions. Its stockholders and directors represent the substantial business interests of the East End.

Since the company was granted a charter in February of 1902, its receipts have grown until the aggregate of $65,000 has been reached and the 6 per cent dividend, declared for the year of 1903, amounts to near $2,000. The officers and directors expect to continue the great record.

SCALE NOT SIGNED
BUT SHOP OPEN

Illness of Proprietor Causes a Suspension of Usual Action By Barbers' Union.

Although Jacob G. Smith, the Mulberry street barber, has not signed the new scale presented by the journeymen barbers, his shop card was not lifted when the committee visited the various establishments for this purpose yesterday morning, and although a state of strike exists Robert Lacey, secretary of local No. 243, employed at the shop, is at work.

This rather peculiar condition comes about through Mr. Smith's very serious illness, he being confined to his home on Pennsylvania avenue with a severe catarrhal attack. Lacey is the only journeyman he employs and to have enforced the union rule meant the closing of the shop. To avoid working this hardship to Mr. Smith an exception was made in his case and Lacey was permitted to remain at work.

MICHIGAN GOLD MINE TO BE INSPECTED

D. Frank White and Alex. McDonald, Representing East End Stockholders, Left for Ishpeming.

D. Frank White and Alex. McDonald left on the morning train for Ishpeming, Michigan, near which city is located the gold mine of the Tri-Bullion Mining and Smelting company, which they will inspect in the interests of the East End people, who conditionally have subscribed for $1,000 worth of the company's stock. The sale was made several weeks ago by officers of the company who visited the East End. It was agreed that two representatives of the stockholders be sent at the company's expense to investigate the mine and upon the report hinges the sale of the stock.

Those who propose to take the stock held a meeting a few nights ago and selected Messrs. White and McDonald to represent them. Mr. White is a stockholder, but Mr. McDonald is not interested and he was selected because of his experience in mining affairs. He has spent a number of years at mining and is considered an expert. He was in the employ of Senator Clarke, of Montana, for seven years and by him was sent to Alaska and other localities to inspect mining properties.

Upon the return trip Mr. White will stop off at Chicago and go to Monmouth, Ill., where the supreme convention of the United Presbyterian Mutual Benefit association is to be held, commencing on the 12th. Mr. White is a delegate from the local division.

DISPUTE OVER LIBRARY HAS BEEN SETTLED

Two Hundred Volumes Promised Welcome Division By National Organization Will Be Forthcoming.

Word has been received by the officers of Welcome division No. 8, Sons of Temperance, from Prof. Rockwood, one of the national officers who assisted in establishing the local division, that sets at rest the doubt as to whether the library of 200 volumes offered by the national organization, will be forthcoming. Prof. Rockwood stated positively that the division is entitled to the free library and requested that the titles of the volumes desired be forwarded.

One condition necessary in obtaining the library is the payment of a per capita tax to the grand lodge of the state amounting to 10 per cent per quarter for each member. The matter will be discussed at the regular meeting of the division to be held next week.

Active in Lodge Work.

William J. Courtney, of Buckeye Castle, who was recently appointed district deputy for the Knights of the Golden Eagle, has his hands full of lodge work. Last night he was at Wellsville, where he took an important part in the installation of a new castle there and tonight he will have important work before the Salineville castle. He will be with the Irondale castle Wednesday night. Mr. Courtney is well posted in lodge affairs and is meeting with great success.

An Important Meeting.

Pan American Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, held an important meeting last night with a good attendance, the severe cold weather considered. The auditing committee appointed at the last regular meeting reported and preparations were made for the installation of the new officers at the next regular meeting. The names of half a dozen applicants were considered.

A GREAT TRUTH

How It Has Spread From Home to Home in East Liverpool.

In every part of East Liverpool; in the homes of the wealthy; in the humble abode of the man of toil; 'tis now a well known fact—a great truth—that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort than any medicine of modern times.

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburgh Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney complaint in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one lying almost in the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a severe attack of rheumatism; for three months I lay helpless and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend, lean back against a chair or reach up. I could not lie on my back, and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the W. & W. Pharmacy did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time and found them to be all the Pittsburgh paper stated them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

Race Horse Dead.

"Colonel P.," a well known race horse, owned by Thomas Burton, a sign writer, became ill a few days ago and yesterday Mr. Burton found it necessary to end his misery. The body was removed to the garbage furnace.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

The Flushing public school building burned. Loss, $10,000.

Judge Morris, now serving his third term as common pleas judge at Toledo, was a former resident of Columbiana county.

The Panhandle railroad has placed a St. Louis limited train on the road, which rivals the Chicago limited on the Ft. Wayne.

Timely discovery saved the Steubenville court house from burning. The blaze was extinguished with but slight damage.

Frank P. Hood, aged 51, a prominent business man of Youngstown, was seized with apoplexy on the street and died in a short time.

Rev. J. H. Kline, of Cleveland, who had been in the Passavant hospital at Rochester for eight years, died there from a ruptured blood vessel.

The Tri-State Gas company has purchased the big Freudenberger gas well in the Sugar Grove field. This puts an end to the project of the independent gas line to Toronto and Empire.

William L. Cole, of Dillonvale, has been up Yellow Creek, where he has been leasing coal lands. He already has nearly 12,000 acres and hopes to obtain 15,000 up there before he quits. He has an offer for all his holdings.

A Costly Cure.

The hydrinus, or serpentine, called in Italy ranocchia, or frogskin, from its mottled appearance, a stone of a rich, dark green color, with shades and spots resembling a serpent's skin, is popularly believed to be a specific for rheumatism.

Camillo Leonardo, one of the earliest authorities to describe carefully the virtues of precious stones, thus quaintly speaks of it: "It restores such sufferers to health if they will stand in the sun, holding it in the hand for three hours, as it causes the discharge of all the poisonous moisture in the body." Great care, however, must be taken, he warns us, in using it, as it tends at the same time to abstract the natural moisture of the body.

Ground to a powder and taken inwardly, it is said to cure the stone and venomous bites, and in particular it is a potent charm to drive away serpents of all sorts.

Though soft enough to be easily cut or turned, serpentine admits of a high polish and is much prized for ornamental purposes.

What You Need for Constipation.

When troubled with constipation, what you need is a remedy that is sure to produce the desired effect. A remedy that is mild and gentle in its action. A remedy that leaves the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. A remedy that is easy and pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets meet all of these requirements. Give them a trial and you will never wish to take another dose of pills. Use them as directed and they will cure chronic constipation, the 25 cents. Every box is warranted by sale by Alvin H. Harvard Causes Surprise by Radical Change in Rowing Policy—The "Strangle Hold" in Wrestling—Future Army and Navy Football.

One of the most interesting of recent happenings in college athletics has been the announcement that F. D. Colson, the former Cornell university rowing captain, would be head coach of the Harvard crews next season. Colson was once coxswain of one of Cornell's champion crews, and with his aid Harvard hopes to develop watermen that will prove capable of defeating Yale next spring.

Such an innovation at Harvard will mean, of course, a change to Cornell's style of rowing, which has been very successful for several years. Colson has coached the Cornell freshmen crews for four seasons and has been closely identified for years with "Pa" Courtney, who is considered about the best professional rowing coach in the country. It is expected that Colson will instill into the Harvard rowers the ideas and system that have been so successful at Ithaca during many years.

Colson at the present time is a member of the faculty at the law school at Ithaca, N. Y. Through the influence of Professor Horatio L. White, the newly appointed chairman of Harvard's athletic committee, Colson has received leave of absence for the second half year. He goes to Cambridge to study

Every American youth that is at all familiar with wrestling has heard of the "strangle hold," probably the most strenuous grip in the mat performers' category. This hold is barred in most regularly conducted competitions, and consequently the average person knows of it only by reputation. In one of the illustrations accompanying this article the strangle hold is shown in operation, and every wrestler should study it in order to avoid being drawn into it in a competition in which the practice is permissible.

A strong neck and shoulders are absolutely indispensable to the man that would free himself from the strangle grasp, which is executed by bending either arm around an opponent's neck, the hand reaching to the back of his head, and at the same time compressing his throat. The head may also be twisted in either direction.

When an opponent grasps you by means of the strangle hold while standing you can break it by dropping to the floor and pulling his feet toward you violently. In this manner you will upset him, throwing him backward before the strangle overcomes you.

Whether or not the West Point cadets and the Annapolis "middies" will meet in football next year is not definitely known by any one at present, but the midshipmen will not consent to give up the game under any conditions. They are smarting under defeat and believe the time will come when they can redeem themselves.

A number of the officers, however, feel that the greater age of the West Point players makes the contest unequal, and they are in favor of terminating the annual contests.

Commander William F. Halsey, secretary of the Navy Athletic association, has said that the understanding of the navy was that eligibility rules of some kind are to govern future contests. It will be remembered that the game for this year was called off because the army would not agree to any rules of the kind, and the navy finally yielded to the great public desire for the game and played this year unconditionally.

THE STRANGLE HOLD IN OPERATION.

instruction and administration in the Harvard law school, although there is little doubt his real motive is to coach the crew.

Harvard men had been convinced for some time that a change in the rowing system is necessary. Out of twenty-five regattas since 1878, all but two of which were rowed at New London, the Harvard crews have carried off the

However, the navy representatives stated clearly that no more games would be played without such rules. A conference of the representatives of the two institutions will be held shortly and an attempt at an agreement made. The navy wants ex-college players barred.

If the score this year had been close there is little doubt that the navy would have declined to play unless rules of eligibility were adopted, but the general feeling now is that it would have an unmanly appearance to stop now.

A SEASON'S AUTO RECORDS

Barney Oldfield Leads in Establishing New Marks.

The establishment this year of an automobile racing circuit for the first time in the history of the sport in this country has incidentally been the means of breaking more racing records by far than during any single previous year.

Barney Oldfield on July 25 at the Empire City track, Yonkers, N. Y., made a mile record in fifty-five and four-fifths seconds.

Barney Oldfield on the same track Aug. 3 made a record run for fifteen miles in 14m. 55s.

Lamont Grosso in O. W. Bright's sixty horse power machine at the same track and on the same date made records from eleven to fifteen miles in the heavy class.

Barney Oldfield at Cleveland later made a string of new records in the 1,800 pound class.

Dan Wurgis at the New York state fair at Syracuse made a new world's record for machines weighing under 1,200 pounds, covering five miles in 5m. 40s.

Barney Oldfield at the Empire City track made new world's track records from seven to fifteen miles and went a single mile in fifty-six and three-fifths seconds.

Henri Page at the same track made new world's records for machines weighing under 1,800 pounds from one to six miles and for ten and fifteen miles.

The head may also be twisted in either direction.

When an opponent grasps you by means of the strangle hold while standing you can break it by dropping to the floor and pulling his feet toward you violently. In this manner you will upset him, throwing him backward before the strangle overcomes you.

Whether or not the West Point cadets and the Annapolis "middies" will meet in football next year is not definitely known by any one at present, but the midshipmen will not consent to give up the game under any conditions. They are smarting under defeat and believe the time will come when they can redeem themselves.

A number of the officers, however, feel that the greater age of the West Point players makes the contest unequal, and they are in favor of terminating the annual contests.

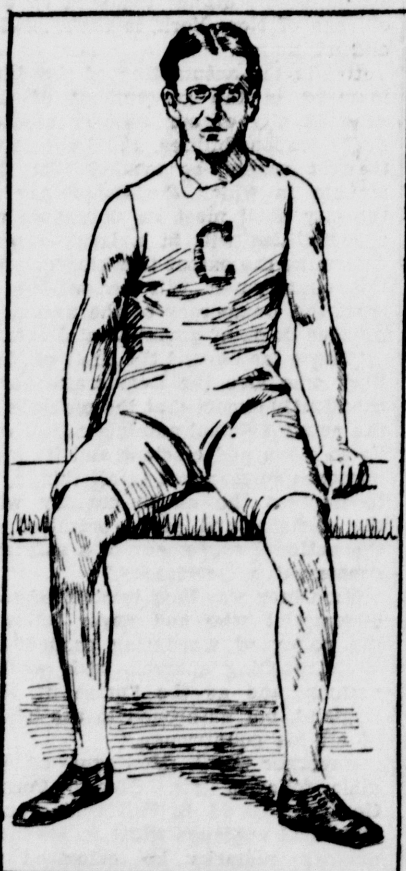

Commander William F. Halsey, secretary of the Navy Athletic association, has said that the understanding of the navy was that eligibility rules of some kind are to govern future contests. It will be remembered that the game for this year was called off because the army would not agree to any rules of the kind, and the navy finally yielded to the great public desire for the game and played this year unconditionally.

instruction and administration in the Harvard law school, although there is little doubt his real motive is to coach the crew.

Harvard men had been convinced for some time that a change in the rowing system is necessary. Out of twenty-five regattas since 1878, all but two of which were rowed at New London, the Harvard crews have carried off the honors only seven times. Cornell has been admitted into the regatta only three times in the entire period, and each time she has won the race.

Professor White, in order to secure Colson's services for the Crimson oarsmen, it is said, gave Cornell a substitute for him during the second half of the year, showing that the new head of Harvard's athletic committee is intensely interested in the matters he now has under his control.

A SEASON'S AUTO RECORDS

Barney Oldfield Leads in Establishing New Marks.

The establishment this year of an automobile racing circuit for the first time in the history of the sport in this country has incidentally been the means of breaking more racing records by far than during any single previous year.

Barney Oldfield on July 25 at the Empire City track, Yonkers, N. Y., made a mile record in fifty-five and four-fifths seconds.

Barney Oldfield on the same track Aug. 3 made a record run for fifteen miles in 14m. 35s.

Lamont Grosso in O. W. Bright's sixty horse power machine at the same track and on the same date made records from eleven to fifteen miles in the heavy class.

Barney Oldfield at Cleveland later made a string of new records in the 1,800 pound class.

Dan Wurgis at the New York state fair at Syracuse made a new world's record for machines weighing under 1,200 pounds, covering five miles in 5m. 40s.

Barney Oldfield at the Empire City track made new world's track records from seven to fifteen miles and went a single mile in fifty-six and three-fifths seconds.

Henri Page at the same track made new world's records for machines weighing under 1,800 pounds from one to six miles and for ten and fifteen miles.

OVER A MILLION.

The News Review takes both pleasure and satisfaction in calling attention to its sworn circulation statement, published on the first page of this issue. The fact that more than a million copies of this paper were printed and circulated among paying subscribers during the past year is, it must be admitted, a very eloquent testimonial to the popularity and merit of the News Review as a newspaper. With some newspapers a new subscription is such a rare event that it must be chronicled in its columns. With the News Review it is different. Our circulation is a known quantity, and its increase is steady and gratifying. At present it is almost 3,700 copies daily. Considering the fact that there are two other papers in the city, each of them putting forth its best efforts to get new subscribers, the showing which the News Review makes is one rarely if ever equaled in a city of the size of East Liverpool. Its contemporaries no longer have the courage to talk about circulation. Neither of them publishes figures, sworn or unsworn, fearing to confess how far they fall behind the News Review. The 1,015,953 copies of this paper printed and sold in 1903 is an achievement the like of which was never before known in this city. But the News Review does not propose to stop at that. Note the figures published from day to day, and watch us grow.

Representatives of the river interests do not propose to let the present session of congress pass without some action looking toward improvement of the Ohio. Representative John D. Zell has introduced a resolution appropriating $200,000 for a survey of the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to the mouth of the Big Miami, with a view to providing a nine-foot stage of water the entire year. This resolution is supplementary to the one recently introduced by Representative E. F. Acheson, which appropriates the same amount for a survey from the mouth of the Big Miami to Cairo. The survey is the first step in the proposed improvement, and if congress authorizes it an important victory will be gained.

The president's message puts the canal issue plainly. The only question is whether the canal shall be built, and ratification of the canal treaty is a necessary preliminary to an affirmative answer. The question will be decided as American interests and common sense dictate. The Democrats in congress have learned that the obstruction policy is not popular.

The Columbus Citizen, a strong Democratic paper, editorially pays high tribute to Gov. Nash's character and ability and to his unusually successful administration. It is pleasant to find a party organ that can recognize genuine merit when it sees it, even if it be in the other party.

The theatre fire in Chicago has resulted in a general inspection of places of amusement all over the country. It is too much to expect that all such places will be made safe, but that they will be made safer there is no room for doubt.

A government commission has recommended the gold standard for Mexico. Mr. Bryan should hasten home and go down there and indulge in his favorite pastime of calamity-howling.

East Liverpool is certainly getting her share of winter. But there is one consolation, and that is that the people generally were never better prepared to encounter such a cold wave.

Olney says the Democracy will combat the "stand pat" tariff policy. Olney is just the sort of man the Republicans would like to see as a Democratic presidential candidate.

If the members of the Ohio legislature have resolved not on much legislation, but on necessary legislation, it is about the best New Year's resolution they could make.

Richard Olney brings forward Grover Cleveland as a presidential candidate. Olney ought to know Grover well enough to be aware that when he says he won't, he won't.

People who thought Salem a model of good behavior are inexpressibly shocked. The mayor of that city asserts that there are gambling houses there.

Jack Frost's artistic work is very pretty, but it is not in the nature of things for the populace to become very enthusiastic over it.

Estimates of city expenditures for the next six months are now in order. It will be vastly more easy to make them than to meet them.

Those Democrats who were clamorous for information about Panama will find every question answered in the president's message.

General Wood scores a victory in the senate committee, but it won't make him proud. He is used to victories.

Russia continues to talk peace and to prepare for war. Only time will tell in which purpose she is sincere.

And the official prognosticator remarked "Fair and warmer." He should go and learn wisdom of the groundhog.

Arctic explorers would do well to stay at home. The north pole seems to be moving rapidly this way.

Fires recently lighted in the mills are a cheerful sight throughout the iron-producing district.

The great west has ceased to have a monopoly of the blizzard-producing industry.

The ice man has every prospect of an excellent harvest.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah D. Lamborn.
Mrs. Sarah D. Lamborn died yesterday afternoon at her home on Jefferson street. She had been affected for several months with an abscess on the jaw. She was 51 years old and the daughter of the venerable William Scadden, of Chester. Though born in Meigs county, she spent the greater part of her life here. Her husband died five years ago. Besides her father she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Rees Marshall, of Chester; William, Elwood L., Clement, Clarissa, Vanie, Alva M., the last four named having lived with her.
The funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow. Interment in Riverview cemetery.

Thomas G. Hood.
Toronto, January 5.—(Special.)—Thomas G. Hood, one of the pioneers

in the sewer pipe business in the Ohio valley, died Saturday at Hot Springs, Ark., from inflammatory rheumatism. The deceased has been identified with the sewer pipe business in the Ohio valley ever since 1870, and was one of the original owners and stockholders in the old Jefferson works of this city.

He was a Mason of high degree, a valiant soldier of the 98th O. V. I., one of the fighting regiments of Eastern Ohio in the late civil war, and was with Sherman in his march to the sea. The body was brought to Toronto today for interment, and appropriate funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. George Davis, a brother-in-law, preparatory to interment this afternoon in Toronto Union cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dawson.
Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dawson, who died Sunday morning near Smith's Ferry, was an old and respected resident of this vicinity. She was born in Nobles-town, Washington county, Pa., 66 years ago, her maiden name being Elizabeth J. Harsha. In 1857 she was married to Thomas Dawson, of Hookstown. After their marriage he moved to Illinois. The husband died there and the family returned to Pennsylvania in 1865. Mrs. Dawson was the mother of five children, two of whom are living—Harry R., Beaver county, and Mrs. Laura A. Geddes, of Deadwood, S. D. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters. Mrs. Dawson was an attendant of the U. P. church. The funeral took place today at 1 o'clock from the house, Rev. E. W. Hill officiating. (Beaver county papers please copy.)

Jack C. Jones.
Jack C. Jones, the 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, 217 Third street, died yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock from catarrh of the bowels, after an illness of several weeks. The funeral will be held at the home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

THE DEFENDENT FILES AN ANSWER

McNab Coal Company Replies to Harold Powell, Who Sued For $10,000.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special.)—Charles S. Speaker, as attorney for the McNab Coal company, of Salem, against which Harold Powell filed suit some months ago for $10,000 damages for injuries received while in the company's employ, filed the company's answer to the amended petition today. Powell sets up in his petition that the company was negligent in not having the mine, which as a new shaft over 200 feet deep, inspected before the men were put to work and in not providing with safety lamps the parties who made the inspection later. He alleges that on the day of the accident, January 3, a year ago, the foreman with a naked lamp, entered the room where the plaintiff was working and an explosion of gas ensuing, which, injured Powell's legs, shocked his nervous system and affected his heart action.

The defendant company says that in employing Powell it accepted as true his representation that he was an experienced miner and alleges that the plaintiff's injuries were due to his own negligence, inattention and lack of care. The answer says that at the time of the accident he was entirely familiar with the condition of the mine as to gas and with the precautions taken, and that such risks as there may have been were obvious and well known to him.

HELD WAR COUNCIL

Leading Democrats Exchange Ideas at Banquet at New York.

CLEVELAND SENDS A LETTER

William J. Bryan Greets Assembled Guests by Wireless Telegraph—Mayor McClellan of New York Is Guest of Honor.

New York, Jan. 5.—Democrats of prominence from the city, state and nation assembled here last night at the dinner at Sherry's in honor of George B. McClellan, the newly installed mayor of New York city, among those present being Richard Olney of Massachusetts, ex-Governor David B. Hill of New York, Congressman DeArmond of Missouri, Charles A. Towne, ex-senator from Minnesota; ex-Governor R. E. Pattison of Pennsylvania, William A. Gaston of Boston and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. Grover Cleveland, Judge Parker, Senator Gorman of Maryland and Senator Morgan of Alabama sent letters of regret.

The speakers included Mayor McClellan, Richard Olney, David B. Hill, Charles A. Towne and Congressman DeArmond. Ex-Congressman W. Bourke Cockran, who acted as toastmaster, introduced as the first speaker Mayor McClellan in an address in which, after referring briefly to questions of national policy, he took up political conditions in New York city, declaring that Democratic government had been abolished in New York so far as laws could abolish it, but that the Democratic population of New York city had made New York Democratic not through the laws, but in spite of the laws. The Democratic victory in New York city was, he said, a presage of national victory on similar but broader lines and Mr. McClellan's administration a preparation for a field of wider usefulness.

Mayor McClellan said in part: "It was my good fortune to be the standard bearer in the first successful skirmish preliminary to the great battle which is to be fought this year. For the cause I ask you to join with me in sending from this great Democratic gathering the glad news to our brethren throughout the land that we are resolute in our purpose to wrest the state and nation from Republican misrule. Let us at the beginning of this presidential year present to the country the spectacle of a united and loyal party, striving earnestly to be worthy of the name of Democrats. Wherever they are, in the east or the west, in the north or the south, let all Democrats hear our avowal. Sinking every sordid or selfish and unworthy motive and for a common object and in a common cause as were our forbears in the days gone by, we stand for right and justice within and without the boundaries of our country that we may restore the rule of the people in its truest sense and insure to ourselves and to posterity the blessings of liberty."

The following letter from Grover Cleveland was read:

"I very much regret that a vexatious indisposition prevents me from attending the dinner tendered by the citizens of New York to their newly-elected mayor.

"While the assumption of the duty involved in the government of the greatest city of our country creates grave responsibilities, the impressive thought cannot be evaded that the manner in which the Democracy of the city shall meet its municipal responsibilities will in a large degree determine the extent to which our fellow countrymen will be willing to trust the Democracy of the nation in broader fields of governmental rule.

"Those far beyond the limit of New York who love the Democratic party confidently expect that the methods of the new municipal administration will be so clean and efficient and its high purposes so manifest in all things, as to impress the entire country with the security and peace promised by the national supremacy of a safe and conservative Democracy."

Mr. Olney was then introduced as a diplomatist who had never followed the policy of wandering around the world, seeking quarrels with weaker nations, and as the "pride of New England, but enthroned in the hearts of all his countrymen."

Governor A. J. Montague of Virginia followed Mr. Olney. Former Governor David B. Hill was greeted with loud applause when in his introductory remarks he eulogized the leadership of Charles F. Murphy and predicted that Mr. McClellan would succeed him as governor of the state and precede him in the White House. Former Senator D. B. Hill made one of the principal addresses. Suggesting a platform, he urged planks for "tariff revision which shall secure equal privileges to all, revenues limited to the necessities of the treasury and an equitable adjustment of exorbitant duties," and adequate laws for the regulation and control of combinations of capital.

"In regard to the money question," he went on, "our differences are greatly exaggerated and much misrepresented. There ought not to be any difficulty at this time in framing a financial plank acceptable to every intelligent and reasonable Democrat. The logic of events has cleared the situation. It is not believed that any further monetary legislation is now desirable."

Mr. Hill was followed by Congressman DeArmond and former Senator Towne, both of whom spoke enthusiastically on the Democratic outlook. At the conclusion of his address Mr. DeArmond read a message of greeting from W. J. Bryan, sent by wireless telegraph from the liner Celtic, on which Mr. Bryan is a passenger returning from Europe. The message, which was received when the Celtic was off the Nova Scotia coast, read: "William J. Bryan sends greetings to the Democrats assembled at Sherry's. I wish you a happy New Year and hope you will have a brilliant success. My heart is with you. Do not forget the western Democrat who polled 6,500,000 votes in 1900."

Tremendous applause followed the reading of Mr. Bryan's words.

OVER A MILLION.

The News Review takes both pleasure and satisfaction in calling attention to its sworn circulation statement, published on the first page of this issue. The fact that more than a million copies of this paper were printed and circulated among paying subscribers during the past year is, it must be admitted, a very eloquent testimonial to the popularity and merit of the News Review as a newspaper. With some newspapers a new subscription is such a rare event that it must be chronicled in its columns. With the News Review it is different. Our circulation is a known quantity, and its increase is steady and gratifying. At present it is almost 3,700 copies daily. Considering the fact that there are two other papers in the city, each of them putting forth its best efforts to get new subscribers, the showing which the News Review makes is one rarely if ever equaled in a city of the size of East Liverpool. Its contemporaries no longer have the courage to talk about circulation. Neither of them publishes figures, sworn or unsworn, fearing to confess how far they fall behind the News Review. The 1,015,953 copies of this paper printed and sold in 1903 is an achievement the like of which was never before known in this city. But the News Review does not propose to stop at that. Note the figures published from day to day, and watch us grow.

Representatives of the river interests do not propose to let the present session of congress pass without some action looking toward improvement of the Ohio. Representative John D. Dzelz has introduced a resolution appropriating $200,000 for a survey of the Ohio river from Pittsburg to the mouth of the Big Miami, with a view to providing a nine-foot stage of water the entire year. This resolution is supplementary to the one recently introduced by Representative E. F. Acheson, which appropriated the same amount for a survey from the mouth of the Big Miami to Cairo. The survey is the first step in the proposed improvement, and if congress authorizes it an important victory will be gained.

The president's message puts the canal issue plainly. The only question is whether the canal shall be built, and ratification of the canal treaty is a necessary preliminary to an affirmative answer. The question will be decided as American interests and common sense dictate. The Democrats in congress have learned that the obstruction policy is not popular.

The Columbus Citizen, a strong Democratic paper, editorially pays high tribute to Gov. Nash's character and ability and to his unusually successful administration. It is pleasant to find a party organ that can recognize genuine merit when it sees it, even if it be in the other party.

The theatre fire in Chicago has resulted in a general inspection of places of amusement all over the country. It is too much to expect that all such places will be made safe, but that they will be made safer there is no room for doubt.

A government commission has recommended the gold standard for Mexico. Mr. Bryan should hasten home and go down there and indulge in his favorite pastime of calamity-howling.

East Liverpool is certainly getting her share of winter. But there is one consolation, and that is that the people generally were never better prepared to encounter such a cold wave.

Olney says the Democracy will combat the "stand pat" tariff policy. Olney is just the sort of man the Republicans would like to see as a Democratic presidential candidate.

If the members of the Ohio legislature have resolved not on much legislation, but on necessary legislation, it is about the best New Year's resolution they could make.

Richard Olney brings forward Grover Cleveland as a presidential candidate. Olney ought to know Grover well enough to be aware that when he says he won't, he won't.

People who thought Salem a model of good behavior are inexpressibly shocked. The mayor of that city asserts that there are gambling houses there.

Jack Frost's artistic work is very pretty, but it is not in the nature of things for the populace to become very enthusiastic over it.

Estimates of city expenditures for the next six months are now in order. It will be vastly more easy to make them than to meet them.

Those Democrats who were clamorous for information about Panama will find every question answered in the president's message.

General Wood scores a victory in the senate committee, but it won't make him proud. He is used to victories.

Russia continues to talk peace and to prepare for war. Only time will tell in which purpose she is sincere.

And the official prognosticator remarked "Fair and warmer." He should go and learn wisdom of the groundhog.

Arctic explorers would do well to stay at home. The north pole seems to be moving rapidly this way.

Fires recently lighted in the mills are a cheerful sight throughout the iron-producing district.

The great west has ceased to have a monopoly of the blizzard-producing industry.

The ice man has every prospect of an excellent harvest.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah D. Lamborn.
Mrs. Sarah D. Lamborn died yesterday afternoon at her home on Jefferson street. She had been affected for several months with an abscess on the jaw. She was 51 years old and the daughter of the venerable William Scadden, of Chester. Though born in Meigs county, she spent the greater part of her life here. Her husband died five years ago. Besides her father she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Rees Marshall, of Chester; William, Elwood L., Clement, Clarissa, Vanie, Alva M., the last four named having lived with her.
The funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow. Interment in Riverview cemetery.

Thomas G. Hood.
Toronto, January 5.—(Special.)—Thomas G. Hood, one of the pioneers

in the sewer pipe business in the Ohio valley, died Saturday at Hot Springs, Ark., from inflammatory rheumatism. The deceased has been identified with the sewer pipe business in the Ohio valley ever since 1870, and was one of the original owners and stockholders in the old Jefferson works of this city.

He was a Mason of high degree, a valiant soldier of the 98th O. V. I., one of the fighting regiments of Eastern Ohio in the late civil war, and was with Sherman in his march to the sea. The body was brought to Toronto today for interment, and appropriate funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. George Davis, a brother-in-law, preparatory to interment this afternoon in Toronto Union cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dawson.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dawson, who died Sunday morning near Smith's Ferry, was an old and respected resident of this vicinity. She was born in Nobles-town, Washington county, Pa., 66 years ago, her maiden name being Elizabeth J. Harsha. In 1857 she was married to Thomas Dawson, of Hookstown. After their marriage he moved to Illinois. The husband died there and the family returned to Pennsylvania in 1865. Mrs. Dawson was the mother of five children, two of whom are living—Harry R., Beaver county, and Mrs. Laura A. Geddes, of Deadwood, S. D. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters. Mrs. Dawson was an attendant of the U. P. church. The funeral took place today at 1 o'clock from the house, Rev. E. W. Hill officiating. (Beaver county papers please copy.)

Jack C. Jones.

Jack C. Jones, the 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, 217 Third street, died yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock from catarrh of the bowels, after an illness of several weeks. The funeral will be held at the home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

THE DEFENDENT FILES AN ANSWER

McNab Coal Company Replies to Harold Powell, Who Sued For $10,000.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special.)—Charles S. Speaker, an attorney for the McNab Coal company, of Salem, against which Harold Powell filed suit some months ago for $10,000 damages for injuries received while in the company's employ, filed the company's answer to the amended petition today. Powell sets up in his petition that the company was negligent in not having the mine, which was a new shaft over 200 feet deep, inspected before the men were put to work and in not providing with safety lamps the parties who made the inspection later. He alleges that on the day of the accident, January 3, a year ago, the foreman with a naked lamp, entered the room where the plaintiff was working and an explosion of gas ensuing, which injured Powell's legs, shocked his nervous system and affected his heart action.

The defendant company says that in employing Powell it accepted as true his representation that he was an experienced miner and alleges that the plaintiff's injuries were due to his own negligence, inattention and lack of care. The answer says that at the time of the accident he was entirely familiar with the condition of the mine as to gas and with the precautions taken, and that such risks as there may have been were obvious and well known to him.

Leading Democrats Exchange Ideas at Banquet at New York.

CLEVELAND SENDS A LETTER

William J. Bryan Greets Assembled

Guests by Wireless Telegraph—

Mayor McClellan of New York is

Guest of Honor.

New York, Jan. 5.—Democrats of prominence from the city, state and nation assembled here last night at the dinner at Sherry's in honor of George B. McClellan, the newly installed mayor of New York city, among those present being Richard Olney of Massachusetts, ex-Governor David B. Hill of New York, Congressman DeArmond of Missouri, Charles A. Towne, ex-senator from Minnesota; ex-Governor R. E. Pattison of Pennsylvania, William A. Gaston of Boston and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. Grover Cleveland, Judge Parker, Senator Gorman of Maryland and Senator Morgan of Alabama sent letters of regret.

The speakers included Mayor McClellan, Richard Olney, David B. Hill, Charles A. Towne and Congressman DeArmond. Ex-Congressman W. Bourke Cockran, who acted as toastmaster, introduced as the first speaker Mayor McClellan in an address in which, after referring briefly to questions of national policy, he took up political conditions in New York city, declaring that Democratic government had been abolished in New York so far as laws could abolish it, but that the Democratic population of New York city had made New York Democratic not through the laws, but in spite of the laws. The Democratic victory in New York city was, he said, a presage of national victory on similar but broader lines and Mr. McClellan's administration a preparation for a field of wider usefulness.

Mayor McClellan said in part: "It was my good fortune to be the standard bearer in the first successful skirmish preliminary to the great battle which is to be fought this year. For the cause I ask you to join with me in sending from this great Democratic gathering the glad news to our brethren throughout the land that we are resolute in our purpose to wrest the state and nation from Republican misrule. Let us at the beginning of this presidential year present to the country the spectacle of a united and loyal party, striving earnestly to be worthy of the name of Democrats. Wherever they are, in the east or the west, in the north or the south, let all Democrats hear our avowed, sinking every selfish and unworthy motive and for a common object and in a common cause as were our forbears in the days gone by, we stand for right and justice within and without the boundaries of our country that we may restore the rule of the people in its truest sense and insure to ourselves and to posterity the blessings of liberty."

The following letter from Grover Cleveland was read: "I very much regret that a vexatious indisposition prevents me from attending the dinner tendered by the citizens of New York to their newly-elected mayor.

"While the assumption of the duty involved in the government of the greatest city of our country creates grave responsibilities, the impressive thought cannot be evaded that the manner in which the Democracy of the city shall meet its municipal responsibilities will in a large degree determine the extent to which our fellow countrymen will be willing to trust the Democracy of the nation in broader fields of governmental rule.

"Those far beyond the limit of New York who love the Democratic party confidently expect that the methods of the new municipal administration will be so clean and efficient and its high purposes so manifest in all things, as to impress the entire country with the security and peace promised by the national supremacy of a safe and conservative Democracy."

Mr. Olney was then introduced as a diplomatist who had never followed the policy of wandering around the world, seeking quarrels with weaker nations, and as the "pride of New England, but enthroned in the hearts of all his countrymen."

Governor A. J. Montague of Virginia followed Mr. Olney. Former Governor David B. Hill was greeted with loud applause when in his introductory remarks he eulogized the leadership of Charles F. Murphy and predicted that Mr. McClellan would succeed him as governor of the state and precede him in the White House.

Intelligent and reasonable Democrat. The logic of events has cleared the situation. It is not believed that any further monetary legislation is now desirable."

Mr. Hill was followed by Congressman DeArmond and former Senator Towne, both of whom spoke enthusiastically on the Democratic outlook. At the conclusion of his address Mr. DeArmond read a message of greeting from W. J. Bryan, sent by wireless telegraph from the liner Celtic, on which Mr. Bryan is a passenger returning from Europe. The message, which was received when the Celtic was off the Nova Scotian coast, read: "William J. Bryan sends greetings to the Democrats assembled at Sherry's. I wish you a happy New Year and hope you will have a brilliant success. My heart is with you. Do not forget the western Democrat who polled 6,500,000 votes in 1900."

Tremendous applause followed the reading of Mr. Bryan's words.

CAUGHT IN MACHINERY
CRUSHED TO DEATHAN ITALIAN LABORER KILLED AT
THE COAL HOIST.No One Witnessed the Accident And
His Cries Were Heard
Too Late.

Almost instant death was the fate of Frank Buchianni, an Italian laborer at the C & P. shops in the West End, yesterday afternoon. He was caught in the massive machinery of the coal hoist in the yards and so badly crushed that death resulted soon.

The accident occurred about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Buchianni was working with several other laborers at the hoist, but at that particular moment was alone. In some unaccountable manner he was caught in the machinery which operates the hoist. It is supposed that he either fell against the machinery or working too close his clothing was caught and he was drawn to his death. No one saw the beginning, but his companions heard his cries of agony as he was caught and drawn in and ran to his assistance.

It was too late for help, for the upper part of his body was horribly crushed. The machinery was stopped and the man released from his horrible position. Dr. Campbell was immediately called, but Buchianni died in about five minutes. Dr. Noble, the railway physician, was also sent for, but the injured man was dead before he arrived. The body was taken to Haugh's undertaking rooms in the ambulance, where it now is.

Buchianni was about 35 years of age and had been in this country but a short time. He lived in the Twelfth street Italian colony. A wife and two little children survive him in sunny Italy. They were dependent upon him for support. His brother, living in Wellsville, also survives him.

THREE MEN SUFFER
FROM FROST BITESRailroad Laborers Had Hands and
Feet Frozen Saturday
Night.

William Zears, one of Sims & Co.'s stable bosses, and two Italians are said to have been badly frozen Saturday night while on their way back to their camp down the river. They had been to town and in going back the storm became so fierce that they were overcome and nearly perished.

They managed to reach their camp, but their hands and feet were so severely frost-bitten that amputation of some of the members may be necessary.

A Small Gasser.

The oil well which is being drilled in on the McDonald farm on the Lisbon road, has reached Berea sand and a small flow of gas and oil obtained. The well reached the sand Friday. Work at present on the well has been suspended on account of the intensely cold weather, but will be resumed at once when it moderates. The well is being sunk by Pittsburgh capitalists and their intention is to continue the drilling until a better flow is reached.

Fighters Fined.

C. W. Sharp and a young man named Groves, who were arrested for causing a disturbance on Sunday by fighting, were before Mayor Fogo last night and were fined $15 each. Yesterday Sharp's brother and William Severs became involved in an argument over Sunday's trouble. Sharp took his brothers' part and a fight resulted. Sharp is now in jail.

Pastor McKee Resigns.

Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, has tendered his resignation. He assigns no special reason, except that he believes the step to be best for the church and himself. He has been here eight years, or ever since the church was organized. In March he will start for Jerusalem as a delegate to the World's Christian Endeavor convention.

Intensely Cold.

Not only was today the coldest day of the winter so far but also the coldest in years. Some say five or six years. From 10 to 15 degrees below zero are reported, while in more exposed places in the country near it was claimed to be 20 and even 25 degrees below.

Engine Derailed.

The engine of passenger train No. 307 was derailed in the Wellsville yards this morning by an accumulation of ice between the tracks. The wreck train was called into service and spent about an hour in replacing the locomotive.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

H. T. Beach, a C. & P. fireman, is ill with typhoid fever.

James McIlvaine has returned from an extended trip to Florida.

Mrs. Rev. J. W. Toland is now a guest of New Philadelphia friends.

Harry Blackburn returned yesterday to Cleveland, where he is attending school.

Rev. Mr. Miller, of Pittsburg, occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

Miss Edna Dugan and Dr. Much Russell have both returned to their studies in Columbus.

C. & P. Fireman R. Bunting returned to work today after a week's absence on account of sickness.

C. & P. train No. 41 was two hours late this morning. The cold weather interferes greatly with the service.

Many college students who have spent the holiday vacation at their homes in Wellsville returned to their school work yesterday and today.

Rev. L. F. Lavery, of the First Presbyterian church, returned yesterday from Chicago, where he occupied the pulpit of a prominent Presbyterian church of that city.

Mrs. Edward Price, who has been in the West End hospital in Pittsburg suffering from cancer, has been pronounced incurable and removed to the home of her parents in Pittsburg.

LITTLE THINGS AND BIG
MAKE CHESTER GREATInteresting And Curious Facts Concerning the Metropolis of the Northern Panhandle.

A Chester man who has the reputation of being one of the most observing individuals in this part of the country has taken the trouble to investigate the many things for which Hancock county is noted. The gentleman has named the list "The Freaks of Hancock County," and those who are in a position to know have admitted that not a single item has been exaggerated or overdrawn. The freaks are as follows:

Has the smallest tin mill in the world, but which is capable of making the largest sheet of tin in the world, 44x109 inches.

Has the greatest newspaper and the best poetical editor in the world.

Has a bridge over which no city official has jurisdiction, and no arrest can be made by him.

Has the shortest street railway line, carrying more passengers than any system of the same length in the world.

Has a bridge over a creek on the road from Turkeyfoot to Holliday's Cove that is so situated that a traveler crosses the creek six times before encountering and crossing the bridge.

Has an editor who sets ads all night and sleeps in day time.

Has more Republican candidates than any other county in the state.

Has the finest natural park in the state.

Has the largest and best mineral water well in the state, if not in the world, situated three miles southwest of Chester.

Has a dairyman named Swearingen, who leaves Pennsylvania in the morning, crosses West Virginia and sells his milk in Ohio.

Has the largest apple orchards of any county in the state.

Has the largest cold storage floor space in the state.

Has the only private normal school in the state in session at Fairview.

More dry gas and oil wells have been drilled in Hancock than in any other county in the state, and the operations are still going on.

Has built the largest, most progressive and best town in the state, and has only consumed six years in doing it.

Holds the largest county picnic in the state.

Has the most perfect water works system in the state.

INTENSELY COLD
ON THE SOUTHSIDETemperature Ranging From 22 to 28
Below Zero at Points in the Vicinity.

It has always been conceded by those parties taking an interest in matters of that kind that Chester and that part of Hancock county lying near the town was the coldest community in this section. The thermometers this morning proved the truth of the assertion beyond a doubt. A great deal of inconvenience and some actual suffering was occasioned by broken water pipes and the lack of fuel. The temperature was hugging the zero mark long before midnight, and this morning the coldest point was at Nick Muessig's residence on the hill above Chester, where that gentleman stated the mercury registered 28 below zero.

At several points in Gas Valley it was 22 below, while people coming to town this morning from Fairview said the machines stood at 18 below. At all points reports show that the farmers took precautions that prevented any considerable amount of suffering among the live stock.

In Chester an effort was made to ascertain just how cold it was, and with that object in view nearly a score of thermometers were consulted in different parts of town. Some of them stood at 15, others indicated that it was much warmer, and when an average was struck it showed that 12 below was about the proper figure. This was cold enough to satisfy the most exacting and the wonder is that more annoyances were not reported as a result of the cold wave.

SNEEZED FOR HOURS

Severe Injury to Elmer Dornan From Inhaling a Quantity
of Pepper.

Elmer E. Dornan, clerk at the J. C. Lewis store in Chester, was the victim yesterday of a most distressing accident. Mr. Dornan is one of the best known young men in Hancock county, and his friends are very anxious as to his welfare.

Mr. Dornan was engaged in weighing out a quantity of pepper for a customer when he inhaled a huge draught of the stuff. He was immediately seized with a fit of sneezing. Being compelled to give up the order he was filling he sneezed for hours, and was finally prostrated by the exertion.

When the young man was relieved it was found that the sneezing had caused a severe injury to his spine, and he suffered excruciating pain throughout the night. He is somewhat improved today, though still very weak.

DROPPED DEAD

An Aged New Cumberland Woman
Falls in the Street and Expires.

Mrs. Hann, an aged lady of New Cumberland, dropped dead on the sidewalk in front of the residence of George Conn, of that town, on Saturday afternoon. Several people saw her fall, but she was dead when they reached her side. Her sudden death is attributed to heart disease. She was a widow and is survived by three sons, all of New Cumberland.

Election Day Dinner.

All arrangements had been completed by the ladies of the Christian church congregation for a dinner to be given by them at the home of Mrs. Arch Severs during election day, next Thursday. The ladies are just now engaged in starting a fund for the benefit of the new church edifice to be erected in Chester soon, but in the present instance they were compelled to give up the project on account of the sudden illness of Mrs. Severs' little son. The lad was attacked yesterday and toward evening was in a serious condition. He is a trifle better today, though not sufficiently improved to justify the ladies going ahead with their preparations.

Farmers' Insurance Company.

The Farmers' Mutual Insurance company held its annual business meeting at New Cumberland this afternoon. A large amount of important business was transacted and officers for the ensuing year were chosen. The company, which was organized for the benefit and protection of the farmers in this community, has been remarkably successful, and the coming season promises to be more prosperous than any previous one.

Attended a Funeral.

J. D. Malen has returned from Colerain, Belmont county, O., where he attended the funeral of his father, Thomas Malen, who died there last week. Mr. Malen was one of the oldest residents of the community, being 76 years of age at the time of his death. He died from the infirmities of old age and was laid to rest on Saturday.

CHESTER NOTES.

The family of J. J. Martin have moved to Vulcan, O.

Mrs. E. C. Baxter is the guest of friends at New Cumberland.

Justice W. C. Johnston has purchased property on Montana avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Allison, known to many people in Chester, is in a critical cal condition, suffering from consumption.

Mrs. J. Simpson, of Mercer, Pa., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ed Moulter.

The E. M. Knowles pottery is now in full operation, having resumed yesterday after the holiday loaf.

The first of a series of evangelistic meetings was held at the Methodist Episcopal church last evening.

The Misses Ola and Etta Wetzel have returned to their home after a several days' visit with their brother, Newsdealer George Wetzel, and family, of Clark street, Toronto.

George Westlake has gone to his home in New Cumberland. He stopped off in Chester on his way from Mansfield, and was the guest of Cashier Oscar O. Allison, of the First National bank.

WILL BUY FOR ALL

County Commissioners to Look After Supplies for County Officials.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special.)—At their regular monthly meeting yesterday the county commissioners decided to purchase all supplies for the offices in the court house. Heretofore this has been left solely to the individual officials.

All the officials were notified today of the new arrangement, which has been enforced for some time in several neighboring counties.

Mr. And Mrs. Phillips.

Prof. W. R. Phillips and bride arrived in the city last evening from Athens, where they were married on last Wednesday. Prof. Phillips is one of the able instructors at the Ohio Valley Business college and has made many friends while a resident of the city. His wife is one of the most popular young ladies of Athens and will be heartily welcomed into East Liverpool social and church circles. Temporarily Prof. and Mrs. Phillips will live at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Fifth and Jackson streets.

Damascus Youth Ailed.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special.)—Miss Anna Snyder, a 16-year-old Lisbon girl, has preferred a charge before Justice Dickinson, of this city, against Fred Dixon, of Damascus. Dixon was apprehended by the Salem police yesterday afternoon and was brought to the county seat today. A hearing in the case may be held this afternoon. The informant, recently a mother, is confined to her bed.

Mr. Borden's Funeral.

Undertaker C. N. Miller left this morning for Salineville, he having charge of the burial of the late Robert Borden, who died Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Farmer, in Gardendale. The funeral and interment took place this afternoon.

Hahn Warrant Revoked.

Columbus, January 5.—(Special.)—Governor Nash has revoked a warrant of extradition for William Hahn, wanted in New York for trial on insurance fraud charges.

Married Yesterday.

Miss Orillo Treese and Albert Morrow were married yesterday afternoon by Squire H. P. McCarron.

Willing to Assist.

There was a worthy Irish member of parliament who was so generous that a request for financial assistance was never refused. But his checks had one little drawback—they were never honored. The shortcoming naturally in time became known, but it did not affect his popularity. A visitor to the district, hearing of the member's peculiarity, asked a leading politician how it was that public faith in the member was not shaken. "Why, sure, it is because he shows his willingness to assist but for lack of funds," was the reply.

BRITISH FLAG AT FT. DUQUESNE.

Historians Differ as to Whose Hand
Raised the Emblem.

[Copyright 1904 by American Press Association]
On Nov. 24, 1758, the victorious army of General Forbes marched down onto the plain which is now the lower part of the city of Pittsburgh and took possession of Great Britain of the recently evacuated ruins of the French Fort Duquesne. The advance of the army was led by the noted Americans, Colonels Washington and Armstrong, and their troops probably caught the first sight of the smoking embers of the famous ruins. Immediately on taking possession the British flag was raised on this spot for which armies had marched and fought for so many years.

An interesting question, now somewhat hard to determine accurately, is as to whose hand raised the first British flag on the site of Fort Pitt.

Bancroft says of this event: "Armstrong's own hand raised the British flag over the ruined bastions of the fortress."

Edward Ellis, describing in his History of Our Country, says of it: "The next day the place was entered and Washington with his own hand planted the British flag over the charred fortifications."

Somebody is mistaken here, for both statements cannot be correct. Of the two Bancroft is far the more reliable historian. But both accounts may contain truth, for it is possible they refer to different occurrences.

In any event Washington and Armstrong both may be said by reason of their command of the advance troops to have raised the flag.

C. L. SMITH.

Beauty and the Beast.

There was as much truth as boasting in the statement of John Wilkes, the famous London alderman, "Ugly as I am, if I can have but a quarter of an hour's start I will get the better of any man, however good looking, in the graces of any woman."

Of Wilkes' abnormal ugliness there was never any question. "The children in the street ran away affrighted at the sight of him."

And yet his powers of fascination were so great that women of beauty and fashion vied with each other for his notice, while handsome men of all courtly graces were neglected.

It was said that there were few beauties of the day whose hand Wilkes might not have confidently hoped to win. He married one of the richest and loveliest women of his time.

"Beauty and the beast, they call us," Wilkes once said to a friend, "and I cannot honestly find fault with the description."

Mark Twain and Whistler.

Mark Twain thus described his first meeting with James MacNeill Whistler: "I was introduced to Mr. Whistler," he said, "in his studio in London. I had heard that the painter was an incorrigible joker, and I was determined to get the better of him if possible. So at once I put on my most hopelessly stupid air, and I drew near the canvas that Mr. Whistler was completing.

"That ain't bad," I said—it ain't bad; only here in this corner—and I made as if to rub out a cloud effect with my finger—I'd do away with that cloud if I was you."

"Whistler cried nervously: 'Gad, sir, be careful there! Don't you see the paint is not dry?'

"Oh, that don't matter," said I. 'I've got my gloves on.'

"We got on well together after that."

Pascal's Early Observation.

Blaise Pascal, who wrote a remarkable treatise on the laws of sound, was constantly observing the familiar occurrences about him even as a boy. When he was only ten years old he sat at the dinner table one day striking his plate with his knife and then listening to the sound.

"What are you doing with that plate, Blaise?" asked his sister.

"See," he replied. "When I strike the plate with my knife it rings. Hark!"

Again he called forth the sound.

"When I grasp it with my hand so," he continued, "the sound ceases. I wonder why it is."

CAUGHT IN MACHINERY
CRUSHED TO DEATHAN ITALIAN LABORER KILLED AT
THE COAL HOIST.No One Witnessed the Accident and
His Cries Were Heard
Too Late.

Almost instant death was the fate of Frank Buchianni, an Italian laborer at the C & P. shops in the West End, yesterday afternoon. He was caught in the massive machinery of the coal hoist in the yards and so badly crushed that death resulted soon.

The accident occurred about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Buchianni was working with several other laborers at the hoist, but at that particular moment was alone. In some unaccountable manner he was caught in the machinery which operates the hoist. It is supposed that he either fell against the machinery or working too close his clothing was caught and he was drawn to his death. No one saw the beginning, but his companions heard his cries of agony as he was caught and drawn in and ran to his assistance.

It was too late for help, for the upper part of his body was horribly crushed. The machinery was stopped and the man released from his horrible position. Dr. Campbell was immediately called, but Buchianni died in about five minutes. Dr. Noble, the railway physician, was also sent for, but the injured man was dead before he arrived. The body was taken to Haugh's undertaking rooms in the ambulance, where it now is.

Buchianni was about 35 years of age and had been in this country but a short time. He lived in the Twelfth street Italian colony. A wife and two little children survive him in sunny Italy. They were dependent upon him for support. His brother, living in Wellsville, also survives him.

THREE MEN SUFFER
FROM FROST BITESRailroad Laborers Had Hands and
Feet Frozen Saturday
Night.

William Zears, one of Sims & Co.'s stable bosses, and two Italians are said to have been badly frozen Saturday night while on their way back to their camp down the river. They had been to town and in going back the storm became so fierce that they were overcome and nearly perished. They managed to reach their camp, but their hands and feet were so severely frost-bitten that amputation of some of the members may be necessary.

A Small Gasser.

The oil well which is being drilled in on the McDonald farm on the Lisbon road, has reached Berea sand and a small flow of gas and oil obtained. The well reached the sand Friday. Work at present on the well has been suspended on account of the intensely cold weather, but will be resumed at once when it moderates. The well is being sunk by Pittsburg capitalists and their intention is to continue the drilling until a better flow is reached.

Fighters Fined.

C. W. Sharp and a young man named Groves, who were arrested for causing a disturbance on Sunday by fighting, were before Mayor Fogo last night and were fined $15 each. Yesterday Sharp's brother and William Severs became involved in an argument over Sunday's trouble. Sharp took his brothers' part and a fight resulted. Sharp is now in jail.

Pastor McKee Resigns.

Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, has tendered his resignation. He assigns no special reason, except that he believes the step to be best for the church and himself. He has been here eight years, or ever since the church was organized. In March he will start for Jerusalem as a delegate to the World's Christian Endeavor convention.

Intensely Cold.

Not only was today the coldest day of the winter so far but also the coldest in years. Some say five or six years. From 10 to 15 degrees below zero are reported, while in more exposed places in the country near it was claimed to be 20 and even 25 degrees below.

Engine Derailed.

The engine of passenger train No. 307 was derailed in the Wellsville yards this morning by an accumulation of ice between the tracks. The wreck train was called into service and spent about an hour in replacing the locomotive.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

H. T. Beach, a C. & P. fireman, is ill with typhoid fever.

James McIlvaine has returned from an extended trip to Florida.

Mrs. Rev. J. W. Toland is now a guest of New Philadelphia friends.

Harry Blackburn returned yesterday to Cleveland, where he is attending school.

Rev. Mr. Miller, of Pittsburg, occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

Miss Edna Dugan and Dr. Much Russell have both returned to their studies in Columbus.

C. & P. Fireman R. Bunting returned to work today after a week's absence on account of sickness.

C. & P. train No. 41 was two hours late this morning. The cold weather interferes greatly with the service.

Many college students who have spent the holiday vacation at their homes in Wellsville returned to their school work yesterday and today.

Rev. L. F. Laverty, of the First Presbyterian church, returned yesterday from Chicago, where he occupied the pulpit of a prominent Presbyterian church of that city.

Mrs. Edward Price, who has been in the West End hospital in Pittsburg suffering from cancer, has been pronounced incurable and removed to the home of her parents in Pittsburg.

LITTLE THINGS AND BIG
MAKE CHESTER GREATInteresting And Curious Facts Concerning the Metropolis of the Northern Panhandle.

A Chester man who has the reputation of being one of the most observing individuals in this part of the country has taken the trouble to investigate the many things for which Hancock county is noted. The gentleman has named the list "The Freaks of Hancock County," and those who are in a position to know have admitted that not a single item has been exaggerated or overdrawn. The freaks are as follows:

Has the smallest tin mill in the world, but which is capable of making the largest sheet of tin in the world, 44x109 inches.

Has the greatest newspaper and the best poetical editor in the world.

Has a bridge over which no city official has jurisdiction, and no arrest can be made by him.

Has the shortest street railway line, carrying more passengers than any system of the same length in the world.

Has a bridge over a creek on the road from Turkeyfoot to Holiday's Cove that is so situated that a traveler crosses the creek six times before encountering and crossing the bridge.

Has an editor who sets ads all night and sleeps in day time.

Has more Republican candidates than any other county in the state.

Has the finest natural park in the state.

Has the largest and best mineral water well in the state, if not in the world, situated three miles southwest of Chester.

Has a dairyman named Swearingen, who leaves Pennsylvania in the morning, crosses West Virginia and sells his milk in Ohio.

Has the largest apple orchards of any county in the state.

Has the largest cold storage floor space in the state.

Has the only private normal school in the state in session at Fairview.

More dry gas and oil wells have been drilled in Hancock than in any other county in the state, and the operations are still going on.

Has built the largest, most progressive and best town in the state, and has only consumed six years in doing it.

Holds the largest county picnic in the state.

Has the most perfect water works system in the state.

INTENSELY COLD
ON THE SOUTHSIDETemperature Ranging From 22 to 28
Below Zero at Points in the Vicinity.

It has always been conceded by those parties taking an interest in matters of that kind that Chester and that part of Hancock county lying near the town was the coldest community in this section. The thermometers this morning proved the truth of the assertion beyond a doubt. A great deal of inconvenience and some actual suffering was occasioned by broken water pipes and the lack of fuel. The temperature was hugging the zero mark long before midnight, and this morning the coldest point was at Nick Muesig's residence on the hill above Chester, where that gentleman stated the mercury registered 28 below zero. At several points in Gas Valley it was 22 below, while people coming to town this morning from Fairview said the machines stood at 18 below. At all points reports show that the farmers took precautions that prevented any considerable amount of suffering among the live stock.

In Chester an effort was made to ascertain just how cold it was, and with that object in view nearly a score of thermometers were consulted in different parts of town. Some of them stood at 15, others indicated that it was much warmer, and when an average was struck it showed that 12 below was about the proper figure. This was cold enough to satisfy the most exacting and the wonder is that more annoyances were not reported as a result of the cold wave.

SNEEZED FOR HOURS

Severe Injury to Elmer Dornan From Inhaling a Quantity
of Pepper.

Elmer E. Dornan, clerk at the J. C. Lewis store in Chester, was the victim yesterday of a most distressing accident. Mr. Dornan is one of the best known young men in Hancock county, and his friends are very anxious as to his welfare.

Mr. Dornan was engaged in weighing out a quantity of pepper for a customer when he inhaled a huge draught of the stuff. He was immediately seized with a fit of sneezing. Being compelled to give up the order he was filling he sneezed for hours, and was finally prostrated by the exertion.

When the young man was relieved it was found that the sneezing had caused a severe injury to his spine, and he suffered excruciating pain throughout the night. He is somewhat improved today, though still very weak.

DROPPED DEAD

An Aged New Cumberland Woman
Falls in the Street and Expires.

Mrs. Hann, an aged lady of New Cumberland, dropped dead on the sidewalk in front of the residence of George Conn, of that town, on Saturday afternoon. Several people saw her fall, but she was dead when they reached her side. Her sudden death is attributed to heart disease. She was a widow and is survived by three sons, all of New Cumberland.

Election Day Dinner.

All arrangements had been completed by the ladies of the Christian church congregation for a dinner to be given by them at the home of Mrs. Arch Severs during election day, next Thursday. The ladies are just now engaged in starting a fund for the benefit of the new church edifice to be erected in Chester soon, but in the present instance they were compelled to give up the project on account of the sudden illness of Mrs. Severs' little son. The lad was attacked yesterday and toward evening was in a serious condition. He is a trifle better today, though not sufficiently improved to justify the ladies going ahead with their preparations.

Farmers' Insurance Company.

The Farmers' Mutual Insurance company held its annual business meeting at New Cumberland this afternoon. A large amount of important business was transacted and officers for the ensuing year were chosen. ## REALM OF SPORTS

BETTER MEN PLAYING

Harry Pulliam Talks About the Kind of Men Now Stars of the Diamond.

"A better grade of men is playing ball professionally than used to be the case," says Harry Pulliam, president of the National League. "For one thing the pay is good, and many young men are picking out baseball as something that not only offers a profitable career in itself while it lasts, but that will earn the means whereby they can prepare the way for a professional or business career after they get through on the diamond. They find baseball a good stepping stone. In the six months that they are not playing ball they can be learning their future business, or if they have a business already, they can devote their time to it in the off season.

"With an average of over $100 a week for playing ball, and expenses paid half of the time in season, the player has a good opportunity to have his money. Nor are ball players' wages affected by hard times. I recall distinctly a number of years ago, when times were hard and all the big business firms were cutting salaries, ball players' salaries were not cut a penny. You see, hard times do not affect baseball. The prices of admission are cheap, and the game is a recreation and a tonic to which business men turn even in hard times.

"As for the class of men engaged to play the game, it may be worth while to point out that they put up at the best hotels and are welcome there. And you will find that they hold up their end in either behavior or conversation. Their hours are good, they are well behaved and intelligent."

Micky Finn's Team.

"Micky" Finn is again in the south preparing for the opening of the Southern league and it's a cinch that the Irishman will again have a strong team at Little Rock. For three years "Micky" has landed his team in second place and twice the right to the pennant has been disputed. This year he proposes to give Little Rock a pennant winner and he generally accomplishes what he sets out to do. Finn has already secured a bunch of good talent while other managers in the south have been living easy. Finn has secured several good men from hereabouts, among them being Jack Bracken, of Kent, Ehman, from Canton, Maag, from Akron, and Eddie Zinman.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Prospects are good for a match between Jim Britt and Young Corbett.

Wheeling intends to make a franchise in the Central league or know the reason why.

Terry McGovern and Eddie Hanlon are wanted for a fight at an early date at San Francisco.

Charley Hemphill, the famous outfielder, of the St. Louis Browns, is at home in Youngstown.

The other day John L. Sullivan sent a note to Jeffries requesting a loan of $200, but the champion never replied.

The foul strike rule is the sole topic of discussion among the National and American league managers at present. It threatens to make trouble.

T. L. McLaughlin, a student at Ohio Wesleyan and a college athlete of much promise, perished in the awful fire at Chicago. He was home on his vacation.

GOVERNOR TAFT AND THE FILIPINOS

A GREAT WORK ACCOMPLISHED UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

The Ohio Man, About to Return, Has Established New Conditions in the Orient.

Governor Taft has left Manila on his hurried return to this country to assume on February 1 next his new office of secretary of war. While he is no longer to exercise immediate authority in the islands, his connection with them is far from ended. In his new capacity he will have much to do with the framing of policies with regard to the archipelago and may be able to serve the Filipinos in his new post even better than in his old relation.

It is a fitting moment to say that the Filipinos justified all the expectations that were entertained by the late President McKinley when he chose him for the difficult task. As member of the Philippine commission and as governor, Judge Taft endeared himself to the natives and became himself so much interested in them that he would not abandon his post even when his health was threatened by his confinement in the island. There was never, it is believed, a hostile demonstration against him, while on the other hand, the manifestations of native respect and regard have been very numerous. He has stayed with the Filipinos until he has seen civil government established among them, with the natives coming in increasing numbers to participation in the government.

He has seen schools established in many sections of the country and the work of education fairly begun and successfully prosecuted. He has seen the termination of the negotiations regarding the friar lands and an adjustment that appears to be satisfactory to those most interested, as well as a promise of increased happiness and enlarged individual opportunities. He has seen, also, the establishment of a new coinage and improved trade prospects through a more liberal tariff. Much, of course, remains to be done, but so much has been accomplished under his immediate supervision that he may well be proud of his service.

Except in the least civilized of the islands, order has been restored and the beneficent work of the United States is moving forward without a hitch. It would all have been done sooner but for the objections at home, who must see in the achievements of this patient and ardent executive a severe indictment of their own folly.

THEY DON'T KNOW SENATOR HANNA

FRIENDS HAVE NO REASON FOR CALLING HIM CANADIAN.

The Heath interview, of Which Democratic Papers Make Much, Means Nothing.

The newspapers which are opposed to President Roosevelt, and they are mainly organs of the Democratic party, are making much of a recent interview which Perry S. Heath is said to have given out in Louisville in which he is reported to have declared that the late President McKinley told him, a short time before the president's assassination at Buffalo, that he hoped to see Senator Hanna succeed him in the presidency of the United States.

President McKinley may have made that statement to Mr. Heath. He was the warm personal friend of Senator Hanna. He realized the worth and ability of the distinguished Ohioan, and it was only natural, perhaps, that he should have desired that Senator Hanna should succeed him in the high office he held. In no better way could his friendship for Mr. Hanna have been expressed.

Yet, what bearing does that fact have upon the present situation? If Mr. McKinley contemplated the succession of Mr. Hanna to the presidency, says the Cleveland Leader, he believed, beyond question, that he would be permitted to serve out his term of office and that the nomination and election would come to Mr. Hanna in 1904 in the natural course of events. He could not have foreseen when he was talking to Mr. Heath the deplorable tragedy that occurred in the autumn of 1901. He never imagined that his career would be cut short by the bullet of an assassin, and that Mr. Roosevelt would accede to the presidency as the result of such a tragedy. The assassin changed the whole situation. He put Theodore Roosevelt in the president's chair and made it possible for that fearless and honest young American to place himself in the line of succession to the office he has graced and honored.

There are millions of Republicans who would be glad of the opportunity to vote for Senator Hanna for the presidency—millions of Americans who respect and honor him and who have the utmost confidence in his ability, integrity and wisdom. They would vote for him, moreover, without question, if he were nominated for the presidency under usual circumstances, yet they are not willing to deny to Theodore Roosevelt the nomination and election he has earned. There is nothing in the conduct or utterances of Senator Hanna to indicate that he desires the presidential nomination or that he will try to get it. It may be accepted as a fact that if by chance the presidential nomination should fall to the Ohio senator, it would not be accepted by him as a legacy, or as a result of the desires or wishes of the late President McKinley. Mr. Hanna is too big a man, too great a man, to look for an honor in that way. If, by any possibility now unseen and unknown, he gets the nomination, it will be because of his eminent ability and because of his high standing in the nation.

Those who are making much of the Heath interview do not know Mr. Hanna.

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period.

"To Young Women:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds.

"If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—Miss Agnes Miller, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000. All the children of the aged couple were present except Miss E. Anna, of New York. They all remained until Saturday evening, when they departed for their homes.

Mrs. John C. Haverfield, of Cadiz, was here for a visit with her son, Harvey B. Haverfield, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thompson and other relatives.

Rev. F. E. Dean, of the U. P. church, went to Pravo or Yellow Creek to moderate a call for a new pastor for Yellow Creek and Bergholz U. P. congregations.

W. A. Thompson and little son, Robert Bruce, arrived here on Friday to spend New Years among their friends and returned home Saturday morning.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

"WILFUL WASTE"

MAKES WOEFUL WANT.

That old copybook maxim finds its most forcible application in the waste of vitality, which is called "burning the candle at both ends." A woman is often tempted beyond her strength by domestic or social demands. Some day she awakens from this waste of strength to the woeful want of it. She has become weak, nervous and miserable.

For weak, nervous, run-down women, there is no better tonic and nerve than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores the appetite, quiets the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It cures local diseases peculiarly womanly which undermine the general health. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"No doubt you have forgotten me, but after you read my letter you will remember me," writes Mrs. Annie E. Moring, of 238 7th Avenue, S. W. Rossmore, Va. "In the year 1897, I wrote to you for advice, which you gave me free of charge. When I wrote to you I was a wreck. I could not walk straight for pains in my abdomen, could not sit down, lie down or get any ease at all. I had what was called the best doctor here but did not get any better until I went through a course of your medicine. I took eight bottles each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten bottles of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I tell you the medicine made a cure of me."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

ALL THEATERS ARE CLOSED

Evidence Continues to Accumulate That No Effort Was Made by Iroquois Theater Management to Comply With Laws to Prevent Panic.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—As a result of the Iroquois theater fire and panic, in which 590 persons lost their lives, Building Commissioner Williams has issued an order closing all public halls, dance halls and all similar places of public assemblage until an inspection has shown that they are complying with all the provisions of the building ordinance. All the theaters have already been closed. This leaves Chicago churches and lodge halls alone open for public gatherings.

As there are upwards of 400 halls in Chicago, ranging in size from those that will accommodate 50 persons to those with a seating capacity of 500, this order will affect probably as many persons as the theater closing order. Protests were numerous, but the building commissioner was inflexible. He said:

"Many of these halls are worse than any theater in Chicago. Some of them are put up with no restrictions such as govern theaters and many of them are fire traps of the worst kind."

Mr. Williams was advised of the election of Joseph Downey, a contractor and a trustee of the board of education and formerly building commissioner, as chairman of a joint committee selected at Mayor Harrison's request by the various architects and builders' associations to inspect all theaters.

Theater Opened Prematurely. Deputy Building Commissioner Stanhope made another inspection of the Iroquois ruins to prepare for the questions which will be asked when the inquiry begins.

It was pointed out by the building commissioner as indicating that the Iroquois theater was opened prematurely that the $10,000 bonds filed with the street department by the Fuller Construction company on April 29 to secure use of the street and to insure the city against damage to the frontage in excavation had not yet been redeemed. At the office of the street department it was declared to be the invariable custom of contractors to redeem bonds as soon as work was finished.

Mayor Harrison and seven aldermen, who have been appointed members of the city council committee to control legislation in relation to theaters, met with theater managers, every playhouse excepting the Great Northern being represented. The managers asked if they could not open their houses and sell seats on the lower floor only, but the mayor and aldermen refused this request. It was declared that all places must remain closed until the ordinance requirements had been fully met.

Skylights Wouldn't Work. Attorneys for the fire department secured from five witnesses corroboration of the charges that a wrecking crew of the Fuller Construction company had destroyed the stage skylights on the day after the disaster. Fire Inspector Fulkerson said:

"It was the intention that these skylights should open automatically to allow the escape of heat and smoke and create a draft which would draw them upwards instead of allowing them to pass over the audience. But from the information I have I am positive that the opening of the skylights was impossible, because beneath each section of the lights had been placed pieces of scantling, which remained there until removed by employees of the Fuller Construction company."

It has been said by Powers and Davis, managers of the Iroquois theater, that the house was not filled at the time of the fire. This assertion was contradicted by Manager Edwin H. Price of the Bluebeard company. "I should say," said Mr. Price, "that between 90 and 100 tickets were sold after the theater was filled. The day's receipts amounted to something more than $1,700."

Little result followed the examination of seven men of the double octet, which was on the stage when the fire broke out.

Kept on Singing. "We kept on singing and dancing and did not even know that there was a fire until the sparks fell on the stage and two girls of the double octet fainted," said William Sleek. "It is the rule of the stage that we are fined if we turn our faces for an instant from the audience. All I know is that we stuck to our work until we had to run for our lives."

Sleek's story was corroborated by the other six men. The police arrested George M. Dusenberry, chief usher of the theater, on a charge of manslaughter. Dusenberry declares that he tried to hold back the rush of spectators and helped to save 30 women from the jammed front exits. He is held to furnish evidence on the statements made by many people in the theater that the ushers closed the doors and that they at first refused to allow the people to pass out.

Benjamin Solomon, a boy who rented opera glasses in the upper balcony declared that all the ushers and attaches closed the doors and shouted to the spectators to remain seated as there was no danger. Coroner Traeger is looking for the chief scrub woman of the theater, who, it is said, carried all the keys to the doors and exits of the balconies. She will be arrested when found.

Thompson's Business Ruined. In addition to the managers of the theater, Will J. Davis and Harry J. Powers, every employee of the theater has been summoned before the inquest and many members of the Bluebeard company who were not permitted to depart for New York will also be called on to testify.

John R. Thompson, proprietor of a restaurant which adjoins the Iroquois theater, has lost the greater portion of his business since the fire. On the day of the disaster Mr. Thompson threw open his restaurant for the bodies of the dead and wounded. He summoned nurses and doctors, procured medical supplies and did everything possible to alleviate suffering. His services were widely advertised in the papers, driving nearly all his patrons away. He has caused all of the tables to be removed and destroyed and has taken away all portable furnishings that could remind customers of the fire, but people stay away from his restaurant.

PENNSY MUST PAY.

Court Decides New York Cab Service Is Subject to Tax.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The United States supreme court has sustained the tax imposed by the state of New York on the cab service of the Pennsylvania Railroad company in New York city. The case grew out of an effort to impose a tax under state laws on the cab line which extends from the Twenty-third street ferry. The railroad company contended that the cab service is merely an extension of the railroad service and therefore a part of its interstate transportation and not subject to state taxation. In his opinion, Justice Brewer said:

"The cab service is rendered wholly within the state and has no contractual or necessary relation to interstate transportation. If the cab which carries the passengers from the hotel to the ferry landing is engaged in interstate transportation, why is not the porter who carries the traveler's trunk from his room to the carriage also so engaged? Where is the limit to be placed?"

GOVERNOR A FIREMAN.

Capitol of Iowa Damaged $500,000 Worth by Fire.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 5.—Fire gutted the northwest wing of the Iowa capitol, causing a loss of $500,000. The chamber of the house of representatives is a charred mass of debris. The legislature will meet in temporary quarters.

The origin of the fire is unknown and Governor Cummins will order an investigation. The supposition is that it started from a candle or from an electric light wire. The gallery of the house chamber fell with a crash, the debris injuring two firemen and endangering the lives of several. The funds of the state treasurer were hastily loaded on a wagon and carried to a bank. Governor Cummins, clad in rubber boots and rough coat, fought the fire, which finally burned itself out.

POLE TAX IS ILLEGAL.

Supreme Court Knocks Out Many Borough Ordinances.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The supreme court of the United States in the cases of the Postal Telegraph company vs. the boroughs of New Hope and Taylor, both in the state of Pennsylvania, denied the right of the boroughs to tax at certain rates telegraph lines for the purpose of inspection reversing the Pennsylvania supreme court, which had upheld the borough ordinances.

Justice Peckham said that the taxes assessed were far in excess of the cost of inspection, making it plain that the ordinances are not in the interest of police supervision, but for the purpose of raising revenue.

Favorable Report on Wood.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The senate committee on military affairs has decided to report favorably the nomination of General Leonard Wood to be major general. The vote stood 7 to 2 the affirmative senators being Proctor, Warren, Foraker, Quarles, Alger, Cockrell and Pettus; the negatives, Scott and Blackburn. Senator Proctor was not present, but authorized his vote to be recorded. Hawley and Tate were absent.

One Indictment Quashed.

Omaha, Jan. 5.—Judge Vandeventer quashed the principal indictment against United States Senator Dietrich, who is charged with conspiracy with Jacob Fisher, postmaster at Hastings, Neb., to violate the statute against bribery. Senator Dietrich will now be tried on other indictments charging conspiracy and bribery.

Postmaster for Wellsburg.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The senate has confirmed the nomination of John B. McNally to be postmaster at Wellsburg, W. Va.

WORK AT LOWER WAGES.

Mills, Furnaces and Factories Placed in Operation.

New Castle, Pa., Jan. 5.—The Lawrence and Shenango glass factories of the American Window Glass company and the Greer and Shenango tin plants of the American Tin Plate company have resumed operations here, giving employment to nearly 6,000 men.

The Rosena furnace of the Carnegie Steel company also resumed and the other three local Carnegie furnaces are expected to start soon.

Bellaire, O., Jan. 5.—The National Steel company has reduced the wages of 1,500 employees from 10 to 15 per cent. The prospects seem bright now for a steady run.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 5.—Stack No. 2 of the Ohio plant, Carnegie Steel company group, has been placed in operation after having been relined.

A cut in the wages of the employees of the Youngstown Iron, Sheet and Tube company has been announced and 1,000 men are affected. The cut runs from 7 1/2 to 15 per cent.

The plant of the William Tod company for the first time since Sept. 1 has started double turn.

Washington, Pa., Jan. 5.—The McClure tin mills in Washington, after a shutdown of several months, have resumed, giving employment to 350 men. The Griffiths tin mill resumed, with 200 men.

AN ITALIAN LABORER FOUND DEAD IN BED

Did Not Arise And He Was Discovered Lifeless, With Both Legs Frozen.

Salineville, January 5.—(Special.)—An Italian laborer, employed at the deep cut at Salineville, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning by his fellow laborers. The man had returned from work in the evening feeling well, and walked up to Summitville to procure some provisions. He returned later in the evening with his purchase. He went to bed and when his fellow laborers awoke in the morning they noticed that he did not get up. They attempted to awaken him, but he was cold in death. His surroundings were not very comfortable and his limbs were frozen stiff when found.

The man had no relatives here, his friends all living in Italy. The remains were brought to Salineville, where they were prepared for burial. He will be buried in the Catholic cemetery here today.

HOSPITAL TRUSTEES

Selected at a Meeting Last Night.
Raising of Funds
Discussed.

The Hospital association met at the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday afternoon and elected trustees as follows:

For three years, H. H. Keffer, L. M. Thomas, Miss Carrie E. P. Hazlett, Mrs. Charles Hanley, Sr., Mrs. I. Colclough; for two years, Mrs. Monroe Patterson, Mrs. M. Stevenson, Mrs. R. M. McKinnon, A. S. Young, George Hamilton; for one year, Mrs. S. Scragg, Mrs. John Agner, Mrs. E. Thomas, F. Milligan, G. Burford.

Another meeting to elect a full corps of officers will be held on the second Tuesday in February.

Discussion of ways and means of raising money was held. It was decided to hold a big bazaar in the hospital building before Easter, committees to be appointed and put to work in a short time. An exhibition of moving pictures for the hospital's benefit is to be presented at the opera house February 16. The hospital buildings are under roof.

How Did the Turtle Find His Way?

The rocks at the west coast of the island of St. Helena abound with sea turtles, some of them as heavy as a man, and an English steamer once took aboard several dozen of those sea monsters, intending to deliver them alive to a provision dealer in Liverpool.

But before they reached English waters one of the turtles was taken sick and was flung overboard after having been branded with the name of the ship. Next year the same steamer came across the same tortoise on the coast of St. Helena, more than 4,000 miles from the point where the home-sick creature had been flung back overboard.

A Needed Admonition.

On one of my trips through the south I sauntered into an old dilapidated cemetery of Virginia and read many very peculiar epitaphs upon tombstones. One in particular attracted my attention, which happened to be that of a slave who had been inclined to be stout. The grave had long since been neglected, and the inscription could only be read after brushing away the vines which grew upon it. But my labor was rewarded, for there on that tombstone I read, "Aliza Wite weighed 300 pounds; 'open wide the golden gates.'"—Philadelphia Press.

Army Firing Positions.

Standing, kneeling, sitting and lying down are the four positions prescribed for firing by the army regulations. The lying position alone is prescribed for the 800 and the 1,000 yard ranges, while at all the other ranges up to 2,000 yards the lying and sitting positions are used. At 100 and 200 yards the sitting and standing positions are prescribed. Wherever the sitting position is prescribed the kneeling may be substituted, but for the majority of persons the sitting is by far the better position of the two.

Soldiers and Weight.

These facts are given by two officers who conducted experiments to determine the effect of weight on soldiers in full marching order. The five men who volunteered as subjects marched a distance of fifteen miles and eighty-two yards. The different weights carried were forty-eight, fifty-nine and sixty-five pounds. With the first weight it was found that a man at a moderate temperature could cover the distance with ease; in hot or close weather slight inconvenience was experienced, which disappeared when the march was over, so that the men could begin the next day as well as ever.

The weight of fifty-nine pounds did no harm in moderate weather, but proved fatiguing when it was hot, and effects were felt the next day. When the men carried the third weight the ill effects were very marked.

WILLIAM COPESTICK IS AGAIN CONSTABLE

Reappointed to the Office From Which He Resigned Only Recently.

William Copestick is once more an officer of the law. Elected last spring as constable to serve three years, he soon became dissatisfied—no one knows why—and resigned. Hardly had his resignation been accepted until he notified the township trustees that he would like to be appointed to the same old office. The trustees were unable to understand his actions and were slow in considering his application. They let it become generally known that the position was vacant and it was not long until they had received a number of other applications.

All of them were considered yesterday afternoon when the trustees met to transact the regular monthly business and after some discussion Copestick was appointed by a unanimous vote. Copestick is himself unable to explain just why he gave up the job after fighting so hard for it prior to election day. According to a rule governing the appointment of a constable, Copestick will now serve only until the next spring election. Then he can come out for election again and if he is successful will be down for three more years. Had he not resigned he would have held the job three years and now he will be deposited in a few months. The other applicants were: W. E. Cooper, who was a candidate before the last election for the position; Zane Davis, H. B. Chambers and Stewart Collins.

While there is not a mint of money in the position of constable, there is a comfortable living in it for one man and during some portions of the year there is sufficient work to keep two of them pretty busy. At the present time there is not much doing, but the justices anticipate much better times before spring and if such is the case Copestick will get his share of the work.

MISS MORROW STILL IN A SERIOUS STATE

Lisbon Woman Injured in the Chicago
Fire Not Yet Conscious.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special.)—Dr. W. C. Nevin returned yesterday afternoon from Chicago. He had been summoned there on account of the serious injury of Mrs. Nevin's sister, Miss Jennie Morrow, and the death of their nephew, Willard Miller, who had accompanied Miss Morrow to the fire on the afternoon of the fire catastrophe.

Dr. Nevin found his sister-in-law in a very serious condition, the outcome of which is uncertain. Although she was burned somewhat and trampled in the stampede, no serious results are anticipated from the injuries that appear on the surface, but she remains in a dazed condition, having never fully regained consciousness. Her nephew met death by asphyxiation.

MORGAN OPENS FIRE

Severely Criticizes President
During Spirited Debate
in Senate.

SAYS HE'S ABOVE THE STATUTES

Alabama Opponent of Panama Canal
Asserts That Roosevelt Has Violated the Spooner Act and That His Policy Is Dictated by Ambition.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The senate's first session following the holiday recess was devoted entirely to Panama. President Roosevelt sent a message on the subject, which was received with great interest. Discussion continued throughout the day, speeches being made both in defense of and against the policy which has been pursued.

Mr. McComas defended the president and asserted that his action would stand if tried in court. He maintained that even without recognition the new republic of Panama would have been established and maintained indefinitely.

Mr. Stewart of Nevada severely criticized the Bogota government for its selfish act in preventing construction of the canal.

Mr. Morgan of Alabama stated his preference for the Nicaragua route and maintained that the present course of the administration was breaking down the established policy of the United States regarding neutrality. He said the president now desired the assistance of three Democratic senators to maintain his policy.

Mr. Morgan appealed to the senate to stand by the Spooner law and declared that the president's course was as if he were above the law. "That law is," he said, "in the way of his personal ambition, and he spurs it with contemptuous indifference." He said that the ratification of the treaty would repeal the appropriation made by the Spooner act and he warned the southern senators that votes for the treaty must inevitably have that effect. As for himself he could see the president join hands with the Panama conspirators, not without sorrow, but without shame, for he was not one of those "who bend the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning."

He predicted that even though the government of the United States should undertake the construction of the Panama canal, the canal would be first built over the Nicaragua route because of its superior feasibility. He again referred to President McKinley's attitude toward the canal routes and declared that "Nicaragua has a better friend in the grave of William McKinley than Panama has in the present head of the American army and navy." He asserted that the present effort to secure Democratic votes for the treaty was a Republican expedient to defeat the canal and aid the president's election to another term.

"If there are Democrats who think that the best way to defeat the Republicans is to follow their lead," he said, "I must still remain an obstinate man of one idea, as I have been charged with, and stand by that, rather than be led or driven into commercial practices in politics or into political gambling with the laws as pawns on the chess board, to be moved back and forth at the will of the player with the use of the army and navy in unlawful war to give spectacular effect to the leader of a campaign for the presidency."

The Rev. Edward Everett Hale, the newly-elected chaplain of the senate, clad in flowing black silk clerical robes, occupied the chair of the presiding officer just preceding the session and on the body being called to order offered a stirring invocation. His prayer was a plea for the wisdom of heaven in the affairs of the government. He referred briefly to the Chicago disaster and asked a blessing on the stricken city. Touchingly also he alluded to the death of the wife of Senator Hoar of Massachusetts. His invocation was preceded by a short Scriptural lesson and concluded with the Lord's prayer.

With the reassembling of congress after the recess the chaplain of the house in opening the session of that body prayed that war between Russia and Japan might be averted by a peaceful adjustment of their differences. A privileged resolution offered by Mr. Hay (Dem., Va.) recited that certain statements contained in the Bristow postoffice report reflected on the membership of the house. It provided for an investigation by a committee to be appointed by the speaker. A point of order made against the resolution by Mr. Gardner (Rep., N. J.) was overruled, and the same fate met Mr. Payne (Rep., N. Y.), who desired to refer the resolution to the postoffice committee. A vote on ordering the previous question resulted in a tie, the minority supporting Mr. Hay. The vote developed no quorum and the house adjourned.

AN ITALIAN LABORER FOUND DEAD IN BED

Did Not Arise And He Was Discov-ered Lifeless, With Both Legs Frozen.

Salineville, January 5.—(Special).—An Italian laborer, employed at the deep cut at Salineville, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning by his fellow laborers. The man had returned from work in the evening feeling well, and walked up to Summitville to procure some provisions. He returned later in the evening with his purchase. He went to bed and when his fellow laborers awoke in the morning they noticed that he did not get up. They attempted to awaken him, but he was cold in death. His surroundings were not very comfortable and his limbs were frozen stiff when found.

The man had no relatives here, his friends all living in Italy. The remains were brought to Salineville, where they were prepared for burial. He will be buried in the Catholic cemetery here today.

HOSPITAL TRUSTEES

Selected at a Meeting Last Night. Raising of Funds Discussed.

The Hospital association met at the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday afternoon and elected trustees as follows:

For three years, H. H. Keffer, L. M. Thomas, Miss Carrie E. P. Hazlett, Mrs. Charles Hanley, Sr., Mrs. I. Colclough; for two years, Mrs. Monroe Patterson, Mrs. M. Stevenson, Mrs. R. M. McKinnon, A. S. Young, George Hamilton; for one year, Mrs. S. Scragg, Mrs. John Agner, Mrs. E. Thomas, F. Milligan, G. Burford.

Another meeting to elect a full corps of officers will be held on the second Tuesday in February.

Discussion of ways and means of raising money was held. It was decided to hold a big bazaar in the hospital building before Easter, committees to be appointed and put to work in a short time. An exhibition of moving pictures for the hospital's benefit is to be presented at the opera house February 16. The hospital buildings are under roof.

How Did the Turtle Find His Way?

The rocks at the west coast of the island of St. Helena abound with sea turtles, some of them as heavy as a man, and an English steamer once took aboard several dozen of those sea monsters, intending to deliver them alive to a provision dealer in Liverpool.

But before they reached English waters one of the turtles was taken sick and was flung overboard after having been branded with the name of the ship. Next year the same steamer came across the same tortoise on the coast of St. Helena, more than 4,000 miles from the point where the homelick creature had been flung back overboard.

A Needed Admonition.

On one of my trips through the south I sauntered into an old dilapidated cemetery of Virginia and read many very peculiar epitaphs upon tombstones. One in particular attracted my attention, which happened to be that of a slave who had been inclined to be stout. The grave had long since been neglected, and the inscription could only be read after brushing away the vines which grew upon it. But my labor was rewarded, for there on the tombstone I read, "Aliza Wite weighed 300 pounds; 'open wide the golden gates.'"—Philadelphia Press.

Army Firing Positions.

Standing, kneeling, sitting and lying down are the four positions prescribed for firing by the army regulations. The lying position alone is prescribed for the 800 and the 1,000 yard ranges, while at all the other ranges up to 2,000 yards the lying and sitting positions are used. At 100 and 200 yards the sitting and standing positions are prescribed. Wherever the sitting position is prescribed the kneeling may be substituted, but for the majority of persons the sitting is by far the better position of the two.

Soldiers and Weight.

These facts are given by two officers who conducted experiments to determine the effect of weight on soldiers in full marching order. The five men who volunteered as subjects marched a distance of fifteen miles and eighty-two yards. The different weights carried were forty-eight, fifty-nine and sixty-five pounds. With the first weight it was found that a man at a moderate temperature could cover the distance with ease; in hot or close weather slight inconvenience was experienced, which disappeared when the march was over, so that the men could begin the next day as well as ever.

The weight of fifty-nine pounds did no harm in moderate weather, but proved fatiguing when it was hot, and effects were felt the next day. When the men carried the third weight the ill effects were very marked.

WILLIAM COPESTICK IS AGAIN CONSTABLE

Reappointed to the Office From Which He Resigned Only Recently.

William Copestick is once more an officer of the law. Elected last spring as constable to serve three years, he soon became dissatisfied—no one knows why—and resigned. Hardly had his resignation been accepted until he notified the township trustees that he would like to be appointed to the same old office. The trustees were unable to understand his actions and were slow in considering his application. They let it become generally known that the position was vacant and it was not long until they had received a number of other applications.

All of them were considered yesterday afternoon when the trustees met to transact the regular monthly business and after some discussion Copestick was appointed by a unanimous vote. Copestick is himself unable to explain just why he gave up the job after fighting so hard for it prior to election day. According to a rule governing the appointment of a constable, Copestick will now serve only until the next spring election. Then he can come out for election again and if he is successful will be down for three more years. Had he not resigned he would have held the job three years and now he will be deposited in a few months. The other applicants were: W. E. Cooper, who was a candidate before the last election for the position; Zane Davis, H. B. Chambers and Stewart Collins.

While there is not a mint of money in the position of constable, there is a comfortable living in it for one man and during some portions of the year there is sufficient work to keep two of them pretty busy. At the present time there is not much doing, but the justices anticipate much better times before spring and if such is the case Copestick will get his share of the work.

MISS MORROW STILL IN A SERIOUS STATE

Lisbon Woman Injured in the Chicago Fire Not Yet Conscious.

Lisbon, January 5.—(Special).—Dr. W. C. Nevin returned yesterday afternoon from Chicago. He had been summoned there on account of the serious injury of Mrs. Nevin's sister, Miss Jennie Morrow, and the death of their nephew, Willard Miller, who had accompanied Miss Morrow to the fire on the afternoon of the fire catastrophe.

Dr. Nevin found his sister-in-law in a very serious condition, the outcome of which is uncertain. Although she was burned somewhat and trampled in the stampede, no serious results are anticipated from the injuries that appear on the surface, but she remains in a dazed condition, having never fully regained consciousness. Her nephew met death by asphyxiation.
